H.R. No. 24

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Every October, Domestic Violence Awareness Month
2 mobilizes people around the country to join in efforts to end 3 domestic violence in their communities; and

4           WHEREAS, More than 10 million women and men are physically
5 abused by an intimate partner in the United States each year;
6 domestic violence encompasses a pattern of behaviors used to gain
7 or maintain power and control over a victim, and in many cases, 8 physical violence reinforces other forms of psychological and 9 emotional abuse such as threats, intimidation, and isolation;
10 severe intimate partner violence can include instances of physical 11 assault, rape, and stalking that leave victims with injuries, 12 post-traumatic stress disorder, and other lasting impacts; and

13           WHEREAS, While young women are most frequently the victims of 14 intimate partner violence, women, men, and children of every age, 15 race, background, and circumstance can fall victim to abuse at the 16 hands of a family member; the damage caused by domestic violence
17 extends beyond direct victims to include children who are witnesses
18 to violence in their own homes, and studies have shown that children 19 exposed to family violence are at higher risk for mental health
20 conditions like anxiety and depression, for developing substance 21 abuse disorders and certain diseases in adulthood, and for becoming 22 either a victim or a perpetrator of abuse themselves; and

23           WHEREAS, Domestic Violence Awareness Month evolved from the 24 "Day of Unity" first observed by the National Coalition Against

1 Domestic Violence in October 1981; the goal of the observance was to 2 connect advocates across the nation who were working to break the 3 cycle of domestic violence and abuse, and it soon expanded into an 4 entire week of activities at the local, state, and national levels;
5 the first Domestic Violence Awareness Month took place in October 6 1987, the same year that the first national toll-free hotline for 7 victims of domestic violence was established; and

8 WHEREAS, During Domestic Violence Awareness Month, 9 advocates, supporters, and survivors gather together to raise
10 public awareness of domestic violence, to celebrate the progress 11 that has been made, and to call attention to the work that must be 12 done to protect future victims of this devastating crime; now,
13 therefore, be it

14 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 87th Texas 15 Legislature, 1st Called Session, hereby recognize October 2022 as 16 Domestic Violence Awareness Month and encourage Texans to learn 17 more about how they can stand up against domestic violence in their 18 communities.
