3 about the nature of the protest. The form must permit a property
4 owner to include each property in the appraisal district that is the 5 subject of a protest. If the form includes boxes a property owner 6 is required to select from to indicate the reason the owner is 7 filing a protest, the form must permit a property owner who believes 8 that the owner's property was appraised at a value that exceeds its 9 appraised value, was appraised unequally, or both, to select a
10 single box to indicate that the owner is filing a protest for either
11 or both reasons. The form must permit a property owner to request 12 that the protest be heard by a special panel established under 13 Section 6.425 if the protest will be determined by an appraisal 14 review board to which that section applies and the property is 15 included in a classification described by Section 6.425(b). The 20 as follows:

21 (a) On the filing of a notice as required by Section 41.44,

23 The appraisal review board shall schedule the hearing to be held as 24 soon as practicable but not later than the 90th day after the date 25 the notice is filed. If more than one protest is filed relating to 26 the same property, the appraisal review board shall schedule a 27 single hearing on all timely filed protests relating to the

2 fractional interests, including separate interests in a mineral in 3 place, shall be scheduled to provide for participation by all
4 owners who have timely filed a protest.

19 applies only to a former member of an appraisal review board first 20 employed by an appraisal district on or after the effective date of 21 this Act.

11 only to a motion to correct an appraisal roll filed on or after the 12 effective date of this Act.

13           SECTION 23. Section 41.45(a), Tax Code, as amended by this 14 Act, and Section 41.67(e), Tax Code, as added by this Act, apply 15 only to a protest for which the notice of protest was filed on or 16 after the effective date of this Act.

17           SECTION 24. This Act takes effect September 1, 2021.
