

By: Kuempel

H.C.R. No. 50

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, The people of Texas are fortunate to reside in a vast 2 state that encompasses numerous ecosystems and a rich assortment of 3 plant and animal life; and

4 WHEREAS, Ranging from the lush forests of East Texas to the 5 majestic desert landscape of the Big Bend, from the windswept
6 grasslands of the Panhandle to the barrier islands of the Gulf
7 Coast, these habitats are home to countless species of trees and 8 other vegetation; they are also populated by an immense variety of 9 wildlife, including such signature Texas animals as the javelina, 10 the western diamondback rattlesnake, the roadrunner, and the 11 armadillo, as well as such impressive and rarely seen creatures as 12 the mountain lion, the black bear, and the peregrine falcon; and

13 WHEREAS, These resources benefit the state in many ways;
14 Texans young and old have abundant opportunities to enjoy
15 recreational pursuits and to learn about the wonders of the natural 16 world, and the great Texas outdoors contributes to economic 17 vitality as well; visitors are drawn to the state for fishing, 18 hunting, birding, hiking, boating, and myriad other activities that 19 boost tourism and create jobs; and

20 WHEREAS, The diverse plants, animals, and habitats of the 21 Lone Star State are a source of great pride to the people of Texas, 22 and it is indeed appropriate to celebrate this rich heritage and to 23 highlight the importance of preserving it for future generations;
24 now, therefore, be it

1 RESOLVED, That the 87th Legislature of the State of Texas
2 hereby designate November as Texas Wildlife and Conservation Month;
3 and, be it further

4 RESOLVED, That, in accordance with the provisions of Section
5 391.004\(d\), Government Code, this designation remain in effect 6 until the 10th anniversary of the date this resolution is finally 7 passed by the legislature.