

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, The observance of Father's Day on June 19, 2022,
2 provides a fitting opportunity to reflect on the essence of what it 3 means to be a father; and

4           WHEREAS, Today, we salute the men who devote themselves to 5 the well-being of their sons and daughters and who, in the process,
6 teach their children through their own actions, guidance, 7 forgiveness, compassion, and affection; and

8           WHEREAS, The first and most important decision a father makes 9 is the conscious choice to fulfill the multifaceted
10 responsibilities of his vital role in the family; he must both 11 nurture and discipline his children, provide for them, and also 12 serve as their teacher; above all, he strives to instill in his 13 children faith, enduring values, and a sure sense of right and 14 wrong; and

15           WHEREAS, A century ago, fathers worked at or near their 16 homes, and children passed a good deal of time in their company, 17 learning by example an appreciation for the rewards of hard work and 18 benefiting by their daily wisdom; currently, many parents are 19 employed some distance away from their homes, making it crucial for 20 fathers to reflect carefully on the precious hours they have to 21 devote to the upbringing of their children and on how they may best 22 help them flourish and become happy, productive citizens; and

23           WHEREAS, Being a father means accepting the solemn duty of 24 molding and shaping the next generation, and on Father's Day, we

H.R. No. 1687

1 honor those who have stepped forward and taken up this challenging
2 yet rewarding responsibility; now, therefore, be it

3       RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 87th Texas
4 Legislature hereby commemorate Father's Day 2022 and honor the 5 caring men who have dedicated their lives to building strong 6 families and a bright future for those who follow in their 7 footsteps.
