H.B. No. 2516

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to certain rights and duties of residential tenants and landlords.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. The heading to Section 24.005, Property Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 24.005. NOTICE TO CURE DEFAULT FOR NONPAYMENT OF RENT; NOTICE TO VACATE PRIOR TO FILING EVICTION SUIT.

SECTION 2. Section 24.005, Property Code, is amended by amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsections (a-1), (a-2), and (a-3) to read as follows:

(a) Except as provided by Subsections (a-1) and (a-2), if [~~If~~] the occupant is a tenant under a written lease or oral rental agreement, the landlord must give a tenant who defaults or holds over beyond the end of the rental term or renewal period at least three days' written notice to vacate the premises before the landlord files a forcible detainer suit, unless the parties have contracted for a shorter or longer notice period in a written lease or agreement. A landlord who files a forcible detainer suit on grounds that the tenant is holding over beyond the end of the rental term or renewal period must also comply with the tenancy termination requirements of Section 91.001.

(a-1) The landlord must give a residential tenant who defaults for nonpayment of rent 10 days' written notice and an

1 opportunity to cure the default by paying any delinquent rent
2 before issuing the notice to vacate under Subsection (a-2). The 3 written notice must include, in all capital letters in an easily
4 readable font and type size, the words "YOU ARE IN DEFAULT OF THE 5 LEASE FOR NONPAYMENT OF RENT. YOU HAVE 10 DAYS AFTER THE DATE THIS 6 NOTICE WAS DELIVERED TO PAY THE RENT BEFORE A NOTICE TO VACATE MAY
7 BE ISSUED. CALL THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS TOLL-FREE AT 1-877-9TEXBAR
8 IF YOU NEED HELP LOCATING AN ATTORNEY. IF YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO HIRE
9 AN ATTORNEY, YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR FREE OR LOW-COST LEGAL 10 ASSISTANCE."

11 (a-2) After a landlord gives a tenant an opportunity to cure
12 under Subsection (a-1), the landlord must give the tenant at least
13 14 days' written notice to vacate the premises before the landlord
14 files a forcible detainer suit. The notice to vacate must state the 15 reason for the notice and must include, in all capital letters in an 16 easily readable font and type size, the words "THIS IS NOT AN 17 EVICTION ORDER. THIS IS A DEMAND FOR POSSESSION OF THE PROPERTY.
18 AN EVICTION CASE MAY BE FILED AGAINST YOU 14 DAYS AFTER THE DATE
19 THIS NOTICE WAS DELIVERED. CALL THE STATE BAR OF TEXAS TOLL-FREE AT 20 1-877-9TEXBAR IF YOU NEED HELP LOCATING AN ATTORNEY. IF YOU CANNOT
21 AFFORD TO HIRE AN ATTORNEY, YOU MAY BE ELIGIBLE FOR FREE OR LOW-COST
22 LEGAL ASSISTANCE."

23 (a-3) If applicable, the written notice to vacate must 24 inform a residential tenant of the tenant's right to cure the 25 default for nonpayment of rent under Section 24.00605.

26 SECTION 3. Chapter 24, Property Code, is amended by adding 27 Sections 24.00605, 24.012, 24.013, and 24.014 to read as follows:

1 Sec. 24.00605. RESIDENTIAL TENANT'S RIGHT TO CURE BEFORE
2 WRIT OF POSSESSION EXECUTED. (a) Except as provided by Subsection
3 (b), a residential tenant who is in default for nonpayment of rent
4 under a written or oral lease may cure the default and reinstate the 5 lease by paying all rent, court costs, and attorney's fees not later
6 than the date that a writ of possession is executed.

7 (b) Unless the lease provides otherwise, a tenant may not 8 cure a default if the tenant cured a default under this section in 9 the 12-month period preceding the date the writ of possession is 10 executed.

11 Sec. 24.012. ACCESS TO EVICTION CASE INFORMATION. (a) In 12 this section:

13 (1) "Eviction case" means a lawsuit brought under this 14 chapter to recover possession of leased or rented residential real 15 property from a tenant.

16 (2) "Eviction case information" means all records and 17 files related to a filing of an eviction case, including petitions
18 and dispositions.

19 (b) This section applies to an eviction case in which an 20 order granting limited dissemination of eviction case information
21 has not been entered under Section 24.013.

22 (c) The court clerk shall allow access to eviction case
23 information only to:

24 (1) a party to the action, including a party's 25 attorney;

26 (2) a person who provides the clerk with:

27 (A) the names of at least one plaintiff and one

1 defendant; and

2 (B) the address of the premises, including the 3 apartment or unit number, if any;

4 (3) a resident of the premises who:

5 (A) provides the clerk with the name of one of the 6 parties or the case number; and

7 (B) shows proof of residency;

8 (4) a person in accordance with a court order, which 9 may be granted ex parte, issued on a showing of good cause;

10 (5) a person in accordance with a court order issued at 11 the time the judgment in the case is entered, if the judgment is 12 entered:

13 (A) for the plaintiff after a trial; and

14 (B) after the 60th day after the date the 15 complaint was filed; or

16 (6) any other person after the 60th day after the date
17 the complaint was filed:

18 (A) if the plaintiff prevailed in the action
19 before the 60th day after the date the complaint was filed; or

20 (B) if the case involved residential real
21 property purchased at a foreclosure sale and judgment against all
22 defendants was entered for the plaintiff after a trial.

23 (d) If a default or default judgment is set aside after the 24 60th day after the date the complaint was filed, this section
25 applies as if the complaint had been filed on the date the default
26 or default judgment is set aside.

27 (e) This section may not be construed to prohibit the court

1 from issuing an order that bars access to eviction case information
2 if stipulated by the parties to the case.

3 (f) For purposes of this section, good cause for access to 4 eviction case information includes the gathering of:

5 (1) newsworthy facts by a journalist as defined by 6 Article 38.11, Code of Criminal Procedure; and

7 (2) evidence by a party to the eviction case solely for 8 the purpose of making a request for judicial notice.

9 (g) After the filing of an eviction case, the court clerk
10 shall mail notice to each defendant named in the case. The notice
11 must be mailed to the address provided in the complaint. The notice
12 must contain a statement that an eviction case has been filed
13 against the defendant and that access to the eviction case
14 information will be delayed for 60 days except to a party, an 15 attorney for one of the parties, a person who has good cause for 16 access as determined by a court, or any other person who provides to 17 the clerk:

18 (1) the names of at least one plaintiff and one
19 defendant in the case and provides to the clerk the address,
20 including any applicable apartment or unit number, of the subject
21 premises; or

22 (2) the name of one of the parties in the case or the 23 case number and can establish through proper identification that 24 the person resides at the address identified in the case.

25 (h) The notice must also contain:

26 (1) the name and telephone number of the county bar
27 association for the county in which the case is filed;

1 (2) the name and telephone number of any entity that
2 requests inclusion on the notice and demonstrates to the 3 satisfaction of the court that the entity has been certified by the 4 State Bar of Texas as a lawyer referral service and maintains a
5 panel of attorneys qualified in the practice of landlord-tenant law
6 under the minimum standards for a lawyer referral service
7 established by the State Bar of Texas and Chapter 952, Occupations
8 Code;

9 (3) the following statement: "The State Bar of Texas
10 certifies lawyer referral services in Texas and publishes a list of 11 certified lawyer referral services. To locate a lawyer referral
12 service in your area, go to the State Bar's Internet website at 13 www.texasbar.com or call 1-877-9TEXBAR.";

14 (4) the names and telephone numbers of offices that 15 provide legal services at low or no cost to low-income persons in 16 the county in which the action is filed; and

17 (5) a statement that a person receiving the notice may 18 call the telephone numbers described in the notice for legal advice
19 regarding the case.

20 (i) The court clerk shall mail a notice required under this 21 section not earlier than the 24th hour and not later than the 48th
22 hour after the time the eviction case is filed, excluding weekends
23 and holidays.

24 (j) The court clerk shall mail separately to the subject
25 premises one copy of the notice addressed to "all occupants." The 26 notice does not constitute service of the summons and complaint.

27 Sec. 24.013. LIMITED DISSEMINATION OF EVICTION CASE

1 INFORMATION. (a) In this section, "eviction case" and "eviction
2 case information" have the meanings assigned by Section 24.012.

3 (b) Concurrently with a final judgment or dismissal in an
4 eviction case or on petition of a defendant in an eviction case
5 after a final judgment or dismissal in the case, a court shall enter
6 an order of limited dissemination of the eviction case information
7 pertaining to the defendant if:

8 (1) the judgment is or was entered in favor of the 9 defendant;

10 (2) the eviction case is or was dismissed without any 11 relief granted to the plaintiff;

12 (3) the defendant is or was a tenant not otherwise in 13 default and the eviction case was brought by the landlord's
14 successor in interest following foreclosure; or

15 (4) at least three years have elapsed from the date of 16 the final judgment in the eviction case.

17 (c) Concurrently with a final judgment or dismissal in an
18 eviction case or on petition of a defendant in an eviction case
19 after a final judgment or dismissal in the case, a court may order
20 the limited dissemination of eviction case information pertaining 21 to the defendant if the court finds that:

22 (1) the limited dissemination of the eviction case
23 information is in the interest of justice; and

24 (2) the interest of justice is not outweighed by the 25 public's interest in knowing the eviction case information.

26 (d) If an order is entered granting limited dissemination of 27 eviction case information pertaining to a defendant under this

1 section:

2 (1) all courts or court clerks shall delete or redact
3 all index references to the name of the defendant that relate to the 4 eviction case information from the public records; and

5 (2) except to the extent permitted by federal law, a
6 credit reporting agency, a person who regularly collects and 7 disseminates eviction case information, or a person who sells
8 eviction case information may not:

9 (A) disclose the existence of the eviction case;
10 or

11 (B) use the eviction case information as a factor
12 in determining a score or recommendation in a tenant screening
13 report regarding the defendant.

14 (e) A person who knowingly violates Subsection (d) is liable
15 to an injured party for:

- 16 (1) actual damages;
17 (2) exemplary damages of $1,000; and
18 (3) reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

19 (f) Notwithstanding Section 41.004(a), Civil Practice and 20 Remedies Code, a court shall award exemplary damages under 21 Subsection (e)(2) to the injured party irrespective of whether the 22 party is awarded actual damages.

23 Sec. 24.014. EVICTION CASE INFORMATION RELATED TO COVID-19
24 PANDEMIC. (a) In this section, "eviction case" has the meaning
25 assigned by Section 24.012.

26 (b) Except as provided by Subsection (d), a landlord may not
27 refuse to rent, negotiate for the rental of, or in any other manner

1 make unavailable or deny a dwelling to a person because of an
2 eviction case brought against the person during a state of disaster
3 declared by the governor under Section 418.014, Government Code,
4 related to the coronavirus disease (COVID-19) pandemic or before
5 the 180th day after the date of termination of the state of 6 disaster.

7 (c) A court may find that limited dissemination of 8 information related to an eviction case brought against a person
9 during the period described by Subsection (b) is in the interest of 10 justice for purposes of Section 24.013.

11 (d) This section does not apply to an eviction case based on 12 actions of the tenant that create an imminent threat to the health
13 or safety of the landlord, a member of the landlord's or tenant's
14 household, other tenants, or neighbors.

15 SECTION 4. Section 92.0081(b), Property Code, is amended to
16 read as follows:

17 (b) A landlord may not intentionally prevent a tenant from 18 entering the leased premises except by judicial process unless the 19 exclusion results from:

20 (1) bona fide repairs, construction, or an emergency;
21 or

22 (2) removing the contents of premises abandoned by a 23 tenant [~~, or~~

24 [~~(3) changing the door locks on the door to the~~ 25 ~~tenant's individual unit of a tenant who is delinquent in paying at~~ 26 ~~least part of the rent]~~.

27 SECTION 5. The heading to Section 92.011, Property Code, is

1 amended to read as follows:

2 Sec. 92.011. [~~CASH~~] RENTAL PAYMENTS.

3 SECTION 6. Section 92.011, Property Code, is amended by
4 adding Subsection (b-1) to read as follows:

5 (b-1) A landlord shall apply any payment received from a
6 tenant to unpaid rent before applying the payment to a fee, charge,
7 or other sum of money owed by the tenant that is not rent. This 8 subsection applies without regard to the method of payment.

9 SECTION 7. Subchapter A, Chapter 92, Property Code, is
10 amended by adding Section 92.0111 to read as follows:

11 Sec. 92.0111. NON-UTILITY MANDATORY SERVICE FEES
12 PROHIBITED. (a) In this section, "mandatory service" means any 13 service other than water, gas, or electric utility services
14 provided to a tenant under a lease and for which the lease does not 15 allow the tenant to voluntarily opt out of receiving the service.

16 (b) A landlord shall include any charges for a mandatory
17 service in the rent and may not charge a tenant a separate fee for a 18 mandatory service.

19 SECTION 8. Section 92.019, Property Code, is amended by 20 amending Subsection (a-1) and adding Subsection (b-1) to read as 21 follows:

22 (a-1) For purposes of this section, a late fee is considered
23 reasonable if ~~+~~

24 ~~(1)~~ the late fee is not more than the lesser of ~~+~~

25 ~~(A) 12 percent of the amount of rent for the~~
26 ~~rental period under the lease for a dwelling located in a structure~~ 27 ~~that contains not more than four dwelling units, or~~

1 ~~[(B)]~~ 10 percent of the amount of rent for the
2 rental period under the lease or $75 ~~[for a dwelling located in a~~
3 ~~structure that contains more than four dwelling units, or~~

4 ~~[(2) the late fee is more than the applicable amount~~
5 ~~under Subdivision (1), but not more than uncertain damages to the~~ 6 ~~landlord related to the late payment of rent, including direct or~~ 7 ~~indirect expenses, direct or indirect costs, or overhead associated~~ 8 ~~with the collection of late payment].~~

9 (b-1) A landlord may not charge a tenant a late fee on an 10 unpaid amount that does not include unpaid rent and consists 11 entirely of a fee, charge, or other sum of money owed by the tenant
12 that is not rent, including a late fee charged under Subsection (a).

13 SECTION 9. Subchapter A, Chapter 92, Property Code, is
14 amended by adding Section 92.022 to read as follows:

15 Sec. 92.022. CERTAIN CRIMINAL MATTERS NOT DEFAULT.
16 Notwithstanding any terms of a lease to the contrary, the arrest,
17 charge, detention, or deferred adjudication or pretrial diversion
18 of a tenant for any crime does not constitute a default under the 19 lease by the tenant.

20 SECTION 10. Subchapter A, Chapter 92, Property Code, is
21 amended by adding Section 92.027 to read as follows:

22 Sec. 92.027. NOTICE REGARDING ENTRY TO DWELLING BY 23 LANDLORD. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (c), a landlord may 24 enter a dwelling only if the landlord has delivered to the tenant, 25 at least 48 hours before the entry, a written notice containing the 26 date and time the landlord will enter the tenant's dwelling and the 27 purpose for the entry.

1 (b) After giving notice as required by Subsection (a), a
2 landlord may enter a dwelling only:

3 (1) on the date and at the time contained in the 4 notice; and

5 (2) for the purpose stated in the notice.

6 (c) In the case of an emergency, a landlord may enter a
7 dwelling as necessary without providing the notice required by 8 Subsection (a).

9 (d) A provision of a lease that purports to waive a right or 10 to exempt a party from a liability or duty under this section is 11 void.

12 SECTION 11. Section 92.052, Property Code, is amended by 13 adding Subsections (a-1), (a-2), and (a-3) to read as follows:

14 (a-1) Before a lease is executed, a landlord or a landlord's
15 agent shall:

16 (1) inspect the premises;

17 (2) make a diligent effort to complete all repairs
18 necessary to make the premises habitable, including ensuring that 19 the premises:

20 (A) have a device to supply hot water of a minimum
21 temperature of 120 degrees Fahrenheit that is in good operating 22 condition; and

23 (B) comply with the requirements of applicable
24 building or housing codes material to the physical health and 25 safety of the ordinary tenant; and

26 (3) affirm in the lease that the landlord has complied
27 with this subsection.

1 (a-2) If, not later than the seventh day after the lease
2 start date and except as provided by Subsection (a-3), a tenant
3 discovers that the premises do not meet the requirements of 4 Subsection (a-1)(2)(A) or (B), the tenant, after notifying the 5 landlord by giving that notice to the person to whom or to the place
6 where the tenant's rent is normally paid, may:

7 (1) terminate the lease;

8 (2) withhold rent payments or have the condition
9 repaired or remedied according to Section 92.0561;

10 (3) deduct from the tenant's rent, without necessity
11 of judicial action, the cost of the repair or remedy according to 12 Section 92.0561; and

13 (4) obtain judicial remedies according to Section
14 92.0563.

15 (a-3) A tenant who elects to terminate the lease under 16 Subsection (a-2) is:

17 (1) entitled to a pro rata refund of rent from the date
18 of termination or the date the tenant moves out, whichever is later;

19 (2) entitled to deduct the tenant's security deposit
20 from the tenant's rent, without necessity of judicial action, or to 21 obtain a refund of the tenant's security deposit according to law; 22 and

23 (3) not entitled to the other repair and deduct
24 remedies under Section 92.0561 or the judicial remedies under 25 Sections 92.0563(a)(1) and (2).

26 SECTION 12. Section 92.054, Property Code, is amended by
27 amending Subsections (b) and (c) and adding Subsections (b-1),

1 (b-2), (b-3), (b-4), (b-5), (d), (e), (f), and (g) to read as
2 follows:

3 (b) If after a casualty loss the rental premises are as a
4 practical matter totally unusable for residential purposes and if 5 the casualty loss is not caused by the negligence or fault of the 6 tenant, a member of the tenant's family, or a guest or invitee of 7 the tenant, either the landlord or the tenant may terminate the 8 lease by giving written notice to the other any time before repairs
9 are completed.

10 (b-1) A notice described by Subsection (b) must be provided:

11 (1) to a landlord:

12 (A) by hand delivery or mail to a forwarding
13 address that the landlord provides to the tenant by e-mail or 14 otherwise; or

15 (B) if a forwarding address has not been provided
16 as described by Paragraph (A):

17 (i) by hand delivery to the landlord or the 18 landlord's representative at another location; or

19 (ii) by mail to the place where the tenant's
20 rent is normally paid; or

21 (2) to a tenant:

22 (A) by hand delivery or mail to a forwarding
23 address that the tenant provides to the landlord by e-mail or 24 otherwise; or

25 (B) if a forwarding address has not been provided
26 as described by Paragraph (A):

27 (i) by hand delivery to the tenant at

1 another location; or

2 (ii) by mail to the tenant's rental
3 premises.

4 (b-2) A termination of a lease as authorized by Subsection
5 (b) may not take effect before the 15th day after the date the 6 notice is delivered. If more than one method under Subsection (b-1)
7 is used to provide notice, the method under which the notice was 8 delivered on the earliest date applies for purposes of this 9 subsection.

10 (b-3) A landlord may not charge rent for the rental premises
11 and rent for the rental premises may not accrue after the date the 12 premises became as a practical matter totally unusable for 13 residential purposes as a result of a casualty loss.

14 (b-4) Subject to Subsection (b-5) and notwithstanding that 15 the termination of the lease has not taken effect under Subsection
16 (b-2), if a notice to terminate [~~if~~] the lease is provided under 17 this section [~~terminated~~], the landlord shall pay to the tenant not 18 later than the fifth day after the date the notice is delivered:

19 (1) a refund of any prepaid rent;

20 (2) [~~is entitled only to~~] a pro rata refund of rent
21 from the date the rental premises became as a practical matter
22 totally unusable for residential purposes as a result of a casualty
23 loss; [~~tenant moves out~~] and

24 (3) [~~to~~] a full refund of any security deposit
25 [~~otherwise required by law~~].

26 (b-5) If a tenant has not provided the landlord a forwarding
27 address as described by Subsection (b-1)(2)(A), the period for

1 providing the refund amounts specified by Subsection (b-4) is
2 tolled until the tenant provides the landlord a written statement
3 by e-mail or otherwise of the tenant's forwarding address for the 4 purpose of refunding those amounts. A tenant that provides notice
5 under Subsection (b) may provide the written statement of the 6 tenant's forwarding address in that notice. A landlord that
7 provides notice under Subsection (b) must include a statement
8 informing the tenant of the requirement of this subsection.

9 (c) If after a casualty loss the rental premises are 10 partially unusable for residential purposes and if the casualty
11 loss is not caused by the negligence or fault of the tenant, a
12 member of the tenant's family, or a guest or invitee of the tenant, 13 the tenant is entitled to reduction in the rent for the month in 14 which the casualty loss occurs and any subsequent months in the 15 lease term in which the rental premises are partially unusable for 16 residential purposes. The tenant is entitled to determine the 17 amount of the reduction in the rent, provided that the tenant must 18 determine [~~in~~] an amount that is proportionate to the extent the 19 premises are unusable because of the casualty loss [~~, but only on~~
20 ~~judgment of a county or district court~~]. A tenant entitled to a 21 reduction in rent may deduct and withhold from a rent payment the 22 amount determined by the tenant [~~A landlord and tenant may agree~~
23 ~~otherwise in a written lease~~].

24 (d) It is a defense in a proceeding to recover unpaid rent
25 for a rental premises, including a proceeding to recover possession 26 of a rental premises for nonpayment of rent, that a rent payment was 27 reduced, deducted, and withheld in accordance with Subsection (c).

1 (e) If a tenant asserts a defense under Subsection (d), the 2 court shall determine the amount of the reduction in the rent that 3 is proportionate to the extent the premises are unusable because of 4 the casualty. If the tenant withheld an amount less than the amount 5 determined by the court, the court shall enter a judgment for the 6 tenant in an amount equal to the amount the tenant overpaid. If the 7 tenant withheld an amount greater than the amount determined by the 8 court, the court:

9 (1) may assess late fees in accordance with the lease
10 if the court finds that the tenant acted in bad faith in reducing or 11 withholding the rent payment;

12 (2) shall order the tenant to pay into the registry of 13 the court or, if the landlord consents in writing, directly to the 14 landlord:

15 (A) an amount equal to the amount the tenant
16 underpaid; and

17 (B) any late fees assessed under Subdivision (1);

18 (3) may not enter a final judgment in the proceeding
19 before the 10th business day after the date the court issued the 20 order of payment under Subdivision (2); and

21 (4) shall dismiss the proceeding against the tenant if 22 the tenant complies with the order of payment under Subdivision (2)
23 before the 10th business day after the date the court issued the 24 order of payment under Subdivision (2).

25 (f) It is a defense in a proceeding to recover possession of 26 a rental premises after the landlord terminates a lease under this 27 section that the premises are totally or partially usable for

1 residential purposes.

2 (g) A provision of a lease is void if the provision purports
3 to:

4 (1) waive a right or exempt a party from a liability or 5 duty under this section; or

6 (2) expand a party's right to unilaterally terminate a
7 lease under this section.

8 SECTION 13. Sections 92.056(b) and (e), Property Code, are
9 amended to read as follows:

10 (b) A landlord is liable to a tenant as provided by this 11 subchapter if:

12 (1) the tenant has given the landlord notice to repair
13 or remedy a condition by giving that notice to the person to whom or 14 to the place where the tenant's rent is normally paid;

15 (2) the condition materially affects the physical
16 health or safety of an ordinary tenant;

17 (3) the tenant has given the landlord a subsequent 18 written notice to repair or remedy the condition after a reasonable
19 time to repair or remedy the condition following the notice given 20 under Subdivision (1) or the tenant has given the notice under 21 Subdivision (1) by sending that notice by:

22 (A) a method specified in the lease;

23 (B) a method generally accepted by the landlord
24 in practice;

25 (C) certified mail, return receipt requested;

26 (D) [~~by~~] registered mail; [~~by~~] or

27 (E) [~~by~~] another form of mail that allows

1 tracking of delivery from the United States Postal Service or a
2 private delivery service;

3 (4) the landlord has had a reasonable time to repair or 4 remedy the condition after the landlord received the tenant's
5 notice under Subdivision (1) and, if applicable, the tenant's
6 subsequent notice under Subdivision (3);

7 (5) the landlord has not made a diligent effort to 8 repair or remedy the condition after the landlord received the 9 tenant's notice under Subdivision (1) and, if applicable, the 10 tenant's notice under Subdivision (3); and

11 (6) the tenant was not delinquent in the payment of 12 rent at the time any notice required by this subsection was given.

13 (e) Except as provided by ~~[in]~~ Subsection (f), a tenant to 14 whom a landlord is liable under Subsection (b) ~~[of this section]~~ 15 may:

16 (1) terminate the lease;

17 (2) withhold rent payments or have the condition
18 repaired or remedied according to Section 92.0561;

19 (3) deduct from the tenant's rent, without necessity
20 of judicial action, the cost of the repair or remedy according to 21 Section 92.0561; and

22 (4) obtain judicial remedies according to Section
23 92.0563.

24 SECTION 14. The heading to Section 92.0561, Property Code,
25 is amended to read as follows:

26 Sec. 92.0561. TENANT'S REPAIR AND DEDUCT AND RENT
27 WITHHOLDING REMEDIES.

1 SECTION 15. Section 92.0561, Property Code, is amended by
2 amending Subsections (a), (d), (e), and (f) and adding Subsections
3 (l) and (m) to read as follows:

4 (a) If the landlord is liable to the tenant under Section
5 92.056(b), the tenant may:

6 (1) withhold rent payments; or

7 (2) have the condition repaired or remedied and may 8 deduct the cost from a subsequent rent payment as provided in this 9 section.

10 (d) Repairs under this section may be made or rent payments
11 may be withheld only if [~~all of the following requirements are met~~]:

12 (1) the [~~The~~] landlord has a duty to repair or remedy
13 the condition under Section 92.052, and the duty has not been waived
14 in a written lease by the tenant under [~~Subsection (e) or (f) of~~]
15 Section 92.006(e) or (f); [~~92.006.~~]

16 (2) the [~~The~~] tenant has given notice to the landlord
17 as required by Section 92.056(b)(1), and, if required, a subsequent 18 notice under Section 92.056(b)(3);

19 (3) if the tenant intends to repair or remedy the 20 condition, [~~and~~] at least one of the [~~these~~] notices under 21 Subdivision (2):

22 (A) states that the tenant intends to repair or 23 remedy the condition; and

24 (B) contains [~~The notice shall also contain~~] a
25 reasonable description of the intended repair or remedy; and [~~]~~

26 (4) any [~~(3) Any~~] one of the following events has 27 occurred:

1 (A) the [~~The~~] landlord has failed to remedy the 2 backup or overflow of raw sewage inside the tenant's dwelling or the 3 flooding from broken pipes or natural drainage inside the dwelling;
4 [~~+~~]

5 (B) the [~~The~~] landlord has expressly or impliedly
6 agreed in the lease to furnish potable water to the tenant's
7 dwelling and the water service to the dwelling has totally ceased;
8 [~~+~~]

9 (C) the [~~The~~] landlord has expressly or impliedly
10 agreed in the lease to furnish heating or cooling equipment, and [~~+~~]
11 the equipment is not producing adequate [~~inadequate~~] heat or cooled 12 air; or [~~+~~ ~~and the landlord has been notified in writing by the~~ 13 ~~appropriate local housing, building, or health official or other~~
14 ~~official having jurisdiction that the lack of heat or cooling~~
15 ~~materially affects the health or safety of an ordinary tenant.~~]

16 (D) the [~~The~~] landlord has been notified in 17 writing by the appropriate local housing, building, or health
18 official or other official having jurisdiction that the condition
19 materially affects the health or safety of an ordinary tenant.

20 (e) If the requirements of Subsection (d) [~~of this section~~]
21 are met, a tenant may withhold rent payments or:

22 (1) have the condition repaired or remedied
23 immediately following the tenant's notice of intent to repair if 24 the condition involves sewage or flooding as described by [~~referred~~ 25 ~~to in Paragraph (A) of Subdivision (3) of~~] Subsection (d)(4)(A)
26 [~~(d) of this section~~];

27 (2) have the condition repaired or remedied if the

1 condition involves a cessation of potable water as described by
2 [~~referred to in Paragraph (A) of Subdivision (3) of~~] Subsection
3 (d)(4)(B) [~~(d) of this section~~] and if the landlord has failed to 4 repair or remedy the condition within three days following the 5 tenant's delivery of notice of intent to repair;

6 (3) have the condition repaired or remedied if the
7 condition involves inadequate heat or cooled air as described by 8 [~~referred to in Paragraph (C) of Subdivision (3) of~~] Subsection
9 (d)(4)(C) [~~(d) of this section~~] and if the landlord has failed to 10 repair the condition within three days after delivery of the 11 tenant's notice of intent to repair; or

12 (4) have the condition repaired or remedied if:

13 (A) the condition is not covered by Subsection
14 (d)(4)(A) [~~Paragraph (A)~~], (B), or (C);

15 (B) the condition [~~of Subdivision (3) of~~ 16 ~~Subsection (d) of this section and~~] involves a condition affecting 17 the physical health or safety of the ordinary tenant as described by 18 [~~referred to in Paragraph (D) of Subdivision (3) of~~] Subsection
19 (d)(4)(D); [~~(d) of this section~~] and

20 (C) [~~if~~] the landlord has failed to repair or 21 remedy the condition within seven days after delivery of the 22 tenant's notice of intent to repair.

23 (f) Repairs made pursuant to the tenant's notice must be 24 made by a company, contractor, or repairman listed in the yellow or 25 business pages of the telephone directory, on an Internet website
26 that aggregates and provides information about other businesses
27 that perform repair work, or in the classified advertising section

1 of a newspaper of the local city, county, or adjacent county at the 2 time of the tenant's notice of intent to repair. Unless the 3 landlord and tenant agree otherwise under Subsection (g) [~~of this~~
4 ~~section~~], repairs may not be made by the tenant, the tenant's
5 immediate family, the tenant's employer or employees, or a company
6 in which the tenant has an ownership interest. Repairs may not be 7 made to the foundation or load-bearing structural elements of the 8 building if it contains two or more dwelling units.

9 (1) If the tenant chooses to withhold rent payments under 10 this section, the tenant may withhold rent until the repair is 11 completed. The tenant shall pay all rent owed not later than the 12 second business day after the date the repair is completed. The 13 tenant may not withhold rent payments that came due before the 14 tenant notified the landlord of the condition in need of repair or 15 remedy.

16 (m) A landlord may not charge a late fee for rent properly
17 withheld under this section.

18 SECTION 16. Section 92.331(b), Property Code, is amended to 19 read as follows:

20 (b) A landlord may not, because [~~within six months after the~~
21 ~~date~~] of the tenant's action under Subsection (a), retaliate
22 against the tenant by:

23 (1) filing an eviction proceeding, except for the 24 grounds stated by Section 92.332;

25 (2) depriving the tenant of the use of the premises,
26 except for reasons authorized by law;

27 (3) decreasing services to the tenant;

1 (4) increasing the tenant's rent or terminating the 2 tenant's lease; or

3 (5) engaging, in bad faith, in a course of conduct that
4 materially interferes with the tenant's rights under the tenant's
5 lease.

6 SECTION 17. Section 92.351, Property Code, is amended by
7 adding Subdivisions (3-a) and (3-b) to read as follows:

8 (3-a) "Conditional offer" means an offer to rent or 9 lease a rental unit to an applicant that is contingent on the 10 landlord's subsequent inquiry into the applicant's criminal 11 history.

12 (3-b) "Conviction" means a verdict or plea of guilty
13 or nolo contendere. The term does not include deferred
14 adjudication or community supervision.

15 SECTION 18. Section 92.3515, Property Code, is amended by 16 amending Subsection (a) and adding Subsection (a-1) to read as 17 follows:

18 (a) At the time an applicant is provided with a rental
19 application and before accepting an application fee, the landlord
20 shall make available to the applicant printed notice of the 21 landlord's tenant selection criteria and the grounds for which the 22 rental application may be denied, including the applicant's:

- 23 (1) criminal history;
- 24 (2) previous rental history;
- 25 (3) current income;
- 26 (4) credit history; or
- 27 (5) failure to provide accurate or complete

1 information on the application form.

2 (a-1) The printed notice must state in writing that the 3 applicant may provide evidence showing:

4 (1) the inaccuracies in the applicant's criminal
5 history;

6 (2) the applicant's rehabilitation or rehabilitative
7 effort while incarcerated or after release; or

8 (3) other mitigating factors.

9 SECTION 19. Section 92.354, Property Code, is amended to
10 read as follows:

11 Sec. 92.354. LIABILITY OF LANDLORD. (a) A landlord who in 12 bad faith fails to refund an application fee or deposit in violation
13 of this subchapter is liable for an amount equal to the sum of $100,
14 three times the amount wrongfully retained, and the applicant's
15 reasonable attorney's fees.

16 (b) A landlord who violates Section 92.356 is liable for an 17 amount equal to the sum of $500 and the applicant's reasonable
18 attorney's fees.

19 SECTION 20. Subchapter I, Chapter 92, Property Code, is 20 amended by adding Section 92.356 to read as follows:

21 Sec. 92.356. CRIMINAL RECORD SCREENING. (a) A landlord
22 screening an applicant's criminal history may not inquire about or 23 consider a previous arrest of the applicant if the arrest did not 24 result in a conviction.

25 (b) Before making a conditional offer, a landlord may not
26 inquire about or require an applicant to disclose or reveal a
27 pending criminal charge.

1 (c) Notwithstanding Subsection (b), a landlord may require 2 an applicant to authorize the landlord to perform an inquiry or any 3 other check related to the landlord's tenant selection criteria in 4 deciding whether to rent or lease to an applicant.

5 (d) After making a conditional offer, a landlord screening
6 an applicant's criminal history may not consider a criminal
7 conviction that occurred more than three years before the date of 8 the conditional offer.

9 (e) A landlord may withdraw a conditional offer based on an 10 applicant's criminal conviction that has occurred less than three 11 years before the date of the conditional offer only if the landlord
12 determines that the withdrawal achieves a substantial, legitimate,
13 nondiscriminatory interest. The landlord's determination must be 14 reasonable after consideration of:

15 (1) the nature and severity of the criminal offense;

16 (2) the age of the applicant at the time of the 17 occurrence of the criminal offense;

18 (3) the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of 19 the criminal offense;

20 (4) any information produced by the applicant, or 21 produced on the applicant's behalf, in regard to the applicant's 22 rehabilitation and good conduct since the occurrence of the 23 criminal offense;

24 (5) the degree to which the criminal offense, if it
25 reoccurred, would negatively impact the safety of the landlord's 26 other tenants or property; and

27 (6) whether the criminal offense occurred on or was

1 connected to property that was rented or leased by the applicant.

2 (f) The landlord may not have a policy to ban renting or
3 leasing to tenants with a criminal conviction history. A
4 determination to withdraw a conditional offer must be based on an 5 individualized assessment considering the factors described by 6 Subsection (e).

7 (g) If a landlord withdraws a conditional offer, the 8 landlord shall provide the applicant with written notification that 9 includes, with specificity, the reasons for the withdrawal of the 10 conditional offer. Not later than the 20th day after the date
11 notice is provided, the applicant may request that the landlord
12 provide the applicant a copy of all information on which the 13 landlord relied in considering the applicant, including criminal 14 records. A landlord shall provide the information, free of charge, 15 not later than the 10th day after the date the request is received.

16 (h) This section may not be construed to allow a landlord to 17 inquire about or require an applicant to disclose:

18 (1) a pending criminal accusation against any 19 prospective tenant; or

20 (2) that a child, as defined by Section 51.02, Family
21 Code, who will reside in the rental unit was found to have engaged
22 in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision.

23 (i) This section does not apply:

24 (1) to a landlord who owns and occupies a multiunit
25 complex that has three or fewer dwelling units; or

26 (2) if a federal law or regulation or other law:

27 (A) requires the consideration of an applicant's

1 criminal history for the purposes of obtaining housing; or
2 (B) allows for denial of an applicant due to 3 certain criminal convictions.

4 SECTION 21. Section 94.251, Property Code, is amended to
5 read as follows:

6 Sec. 94.251. RETALIATION BY LANDLORD. (a) A landlord may 7 not retaliate against a tenant by taking an action described by 8 Subsection (b) because the tenant:

9 (1) in good faith exercises or attempts to exercise
10 against a landlord a right or remedy granted to the tenant by the 11 lease agreement, a municipal ordinance, or a federal or state
12 statute;

13 (2) gives the landlord a notice to repair or exercise a 14 remedy under this chapter; ~~or~~

15 (3) complains to a governmental entity responsible for 16 enforcing building or housing codes, a public utility, or a civic or 17 nonprofit agency, and the tenant:

18 (A) claims a building or housing code violation
19 or utility problem; and

20 (B) believes in good faith that the complaint is 21 valid and that the violation or problem occurred; or

22 (4) establishes, attempts to establish, or 23 participates in a tenant organization.

24 (b) A landlord may not, because ~~[within six months after the~~
25 ~~date]~~ of the tenant's action under Subsection (a), retaliate
26 against the tenant by:

27 (1) filing an eviction proceeding, except for the

1 grounds stated by Subchapter E;

2 (2) depriving the tenant of the use of the premises,
3 except for reasons authorized by law;

4 (3) decreasing services to the tenant;

5 (4) increasing the tenant's rent;

6 (5) terminating the tenant's lease agreement; or

7 (6) engaging, in bad faith, in a course of conduct that
8 materially interferes with the tenant's rights under the tenant's
9 lease agreement.

10 SECTION 22. Sections 92.0081(c), (d), (e), (e-1), (f), (g),
11 (i), and (k), Property Code, are repealed.

12 SECTION 23. The changes in law made by this Act apply only 13 to a lease or rental agreement entered into or renewed on or after 14 the effective date of this Act. A lease or rental agreement entered 15 into or renewed before the effective date of this Act is governed by 16 the law in effect immediately before the effective date of this Act,
17 and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

18 SECTION 24. Not later than January 1, 2024, the Texas
19 Supreme Court shall adopt the rules necessary to implement Sections
20 24.012 and 24.013, Property Code, as added by this Act.

21 SECTION 25. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b) of 22 this section, this Act takes effect January 1, 2024.

23 (b) Section 24 of this Act takes effect September 1, 2023.
