H.B. No. 3290

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to the next generation 9-1-1 service fund.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 771.0713, Health and Safety Code, is amended by amending Subsections (b), (c), (f) and (g) and adding Subsections (c-1), (c-2), (c-3) and (c-4) to read as follows:

(b) Notwithstanding any other law and except as provided by federal or state law, the comptroller shall transfer to the credit of the next generation 9-1-1 service fund any amount available (i) from federal money provided to this state from the Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds under Section 9901 of the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (Pub. L. No. 117-2) or from any other federal governmental source, or (ii) from any state governmental source, for purposes of this chapter. The comptroller shall transfer the money as soon as practicable following the receipt by this state of a sufficient amount of federal money for the transfer or as soon as practicable after the effective date of the most recent appropriation of state funds by the legislature for this purpose.

(c) Money deposited to the credit of the next generation 9-1-1 service fund may be used only for the purpose of supporting the deployment and reliable operation of next generation 9-1-1 service, including the costs of equipment, operations, and administration.

1       (c-1) Money in the fund from federal sources may be
2 distributed to only the commission and emergency communication
3 districts and must be used in a manner the complies with federal 4 law.

5       (c-2) For any money in the fund resulting from the 6 appropriation of state funds, except as provided by Subsection
7 (c-3), after the money is deposited into the fund, the commission
8 shall distribute to each emergency communication district that does
9 not participate in the state system a portion of the money that 10 bears the same proportion that the population of the area served by 11 the district bears to the population of the state.

12       (c-3) For each emergency communication district created
13 under Chapter 772 that is entitled to a portion of the money
14 distributed under Subsection (c-2), the commission shall:

15           (1) reduce the portion to which that district is 16 entitled by an amount equal to [nine percent] of that portion and 17 distribute that amount in equal shares to all the emergency
18 communication districts created under Chapter 772; and

19           (2) distribute to that district the remainder of the 20 portion to which the district is entitled under Subsection (c-2)
21 that is not distributed under Subdivision (1).

22       (c-4) The remaining money in the fund appropriated from
23 state funds that is not otherwise distributed under Subsection
24 (c-2) or (c-3) shall be deposited to the 9-1-1 services fee account.

25       (f) All money in the fund from the Coronavirus State and 26 Local Fiscal Recovery Funds under Section 9901 of the American 27 Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (Pub. L. No. 117-2) shall be distributed in

1 accordance with this section not later than [~~December 31, 2022~~]
2 August 31, 2024, and all money distributed under this section from
3 the Coronavirus State and Local Fiscal Recovery Funds under Section
4 9901 of the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021 (Pub. L. No. 117-2)
5 shall be spent not later than [~~December 31, 2024~~] December 31, 2026,
6 for the deployment and reliable operation of next generation 9-1-1
7 service.

8 (g) This section expires [~~September 1, 2025~~] December 31,
9 2026.

10 SECTION 2. This Act takes effect September 1, 2023.
