14 Dodgers organization before taking the helm of the South San 15 Antonio High School baseball program; during his tenure as head
16 coach, he guided the Bobcats to 12 district titles and a record
17 seven 3A state championships, and his final team in 1967 notched a 18 perfect record; he met his future wife, Janie Davenport, while 19 coaching at South San, and they shared 53 happy years of marriage
20 until her passing in 2012; the couple raised three children, Jill, 21 Deron, and Jann; and

22 WHEREAS, In 1967, Mr. Gustafson moved up to the collegiate 23 ranks when he was hired as head coach of the UT baseball team; his 24 unique style of coaching became known as "Gusball," and over the

1 course of his 29-year career on the 40 Acres, his teams made 17
2 appearances in the College World Series and won two national 3 championships; moreover, the Longhorns collected 22 SWC crowns
4 under his tutelage, and he racked up a total of 1,466 victories
5 against only 377 losses; and

6 WHEREAS, Mr. Gustafson was twice selected as National Coach
7 of the Year, and his accolades also include induction into the Texas
8 Athletics Hall of Honor at UT as well as the College Baseball,
9 Southwest Conference, Omaha College Baseball, and Texas High School
10 Baseball Coaches Association Halls of Fame; and

11 WHEREAS, In his later years, Mr. Gustafson married a second 12 time, to the former Ann Robinette; he relished the time he spent in 13 the company of his loved ones, and he had the pleasure of seeing his 14 family grow to include six grandchildren and five 15 great-grandchildren; and

16 WHEREAS, Renowned for his determined leadership and his 17 commitment to the student-athletes he mentored, Cliff Gustafson
18 left an indelible mark on the UT baseball program, and his myriad 19 achievements will long endure; now, therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas
