H.R. No. 568

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, March 18, 2023, marks the 60th anniversary of the 2 landmark Supreme Court ruling in Gideon v. Wainwright, which found 3 that under the United States Constitution, state courts must 4 provide attorneys to indigent defendants in all felony cases; and

5 WHEREAS, In Gideon v. Wainwright, the United States Supreme 6 Court reaffirmed the right of defendants to a fair trial and 7 recognized that our adversarial system of criminal justice depends 8 upon a fair contest between the prosecution and the defense; 9 moreover, it acknowledged that this system is an effective means of 10 arriving at just results only when both the prosecution and the 11 defense are adequately prepared and equipped to present their case 12 effectively under the law; and

13 WHEREAS, Justice Hugo Black, who wrote the unanimous 14 decision, noted: "The right of one charged with crime to counsel may 15 not be deemed fundamental and essential to fair trials in some 16 countries, but it is in ours"; the Supreme Court has expanded on its 17 rationale in Gideon v. Wainwright to ensure the right to counsel for 18 indigent defendants in juvenile cases and in all cases that carry 19 the possibility of incarceration for defendants; and

20 WHEREAS, Because the assistance of counsel is essential to 21 effectuate a meaningful defense when faced with prosecution by the 22 state, Texas passed the Fair Defense Act of 2001 to better ensure 23 that the constitutional rights of all Texans would be more reliably
24 safeguarded; implementation of the Act has enabled many more people

1 to receive public defense services and earlier access to counsel, 2 and it has improved the quality of legal assistance provided; and

3 WHEREAS, The Fair Defense Act created the Task Force on 4 Indigent Defense, now known as the Texas Indigent Defense
5 Commission, to provide technical support to counties to develop and 6 maintain quality, cost-effective public defense systems, as well as 7 to offer financial assistance to meet the new requirements and to 8 foster innovation in the way public defense services are provided; 9 state grant funds administered by the commission have led to the 10 creation of several new public defender offices and managed 11 assigned counsel programs to provide public defense services in 12 more than 70 counties; and

13 WHEREAS, Affirming essential principles of fairness and 14 justice, Gideon v. Wainwright marked a turning point in American 15 jurisprudence, and it is indeed fitting to recognize the vital role 16 this decision has played over the past half century in guaranteeing 17 access to counsel for all; now, therefore, be it

18 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas
19 Legislature hereby commemorate the 60th anniversary of the Supreme 20 Court's decision in Gideon v. Wainwright.
