1 WHEREAS, Memories of a life well lived may help to comfort
2 those saddened by the passing of Iris Brite Porter on July 19, 2022, 3 at the age of 89; and

4 WHEREAS, Born in Pleasanton on July 12, 1933, to Thomas and 5 Nora Brite, the former Iris Wilsie Brite grew up with the 6 companionship of four older siblings, Rita, Ralph, Bessie, and 7 Taylor; her father taught her that education was the key to success,
8 and through hard work and discipline, she was named valedictorian
9 of Pleasanton High School before graduating summa cum laude from 10 Texas State University in 1953; and

11 WHEREAS, The following year, she exchanged wedding vows with 12 Norman Porter, with whom she shared more than six decades of 13 marriage until his passing; she was a devoted mother to her son,
14 Norman, and also cherished her three grandchildren, her nine 15 great-grandchildren, and her nieces and nephews; and

16 WHEREAS, After teaching in Corpus Christi, San Antonio, and 17 Bronte, Mrs. Porter returned to Pleasanton, where she became the 18 district's only special education teacher; she was later elevated 19 to the role of special education director, before starting and 20 directing a special education co-op of five school districts; she 21 was deeply dedicated to ensuring that all students with 22 disabilities were provided the support they needed and were treated 23 with respect and kindness; and

24 WHEREAS, In 1990, Mrs. Porter began a new chapter in her life

1 when she entered law school; she graduated from St. Mary's
2 University School of Law at the age of 60 and was chosen by her peers
3 to be the featured speaker at her graduation ceremony; from there,
4 she practiced law up until the date of her passing, and she earned a 5 reputation as a tough but caring advocate for her clients, most of 6 whom had nowhere else to turn for help; and

7 WHEREAS, Iris Brite Porter inspired many people through her 8 exemplary professional achievements and her fierce commitment to 9 the underserved, and she will long be remembered with affection and 10 admiration by all who had the good fortune to know her; now,
11 therefore, be it

12 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas
