2 passing of Joe Vincent Saladino of Friendswood on April 25, 2023, at 3 the age of 75; and

4 WHEREAS, The son of Mary and Sam Saladino, Joe Saladino was 5 born in Houston on March 2, 1948; he learned the value of hard work
6 by rising early to help his father and grandfather prepare barbeque
7 for the family restaurant; after graduating from Mount Carmel High 8 School, he served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War; he 9 realized his dream of opening his own restaurant in 1976; Joe's
10 Barbeque in Manvel had just four tables and three employees, but it
11 caught on quickly, and six years later, Mr. Saladino launched 12 another location in Alvin; in 1999, he added Joe's Banquet Center to 13 host family celebrations and meetings; his catering operation grew 14 large enough to serve major corporate clients and groups numbering 15 in the tens of thousands; and

16 WHEREAS, Mr. Saladino adapted swiftly to the upheaval of the 17 COVID-19 pandemic; he continued to employ approximately 100 people, 18 including many who had worked for him for decades; he was also 19 renowned for stepping forward to assist in the wake of severe storms 20 and emergency situations, keeping the restaurant open to feed first 21 responders and others, and he never charged police and fire 22 department personnel in uniform for their meals; a mentor to 23 countless youngsters, he was always ready to support local schools 24 as well as his church and various community organizations and never

1 sought credit for his generosity; warm and friendly, he enjoyed 2 spending lunchtime laughing and conversing with customers at his 3 favorite table; and

4 WHEREAS, Mr. Saladino was deeply devoted to his family; he 5 shared a fulfilling relationship of 52 years with his wife,
6 Beverly, and he took great pride in his four children, seven 7 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren; and

8 WHEREAS, Joe Saladino lived a rich and purposeful life
9 centered around his family, his business, and his community, and he 10 will be remembered with great admiration and affection by all who 11 were privileged to know him; now, therefore, be it
