

By: Lalani

H.R. No. 1699

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, For more than a century, a day has been set aside
2 each year to honor those very special women among us, the mothers 3 who brought us into this world, protected us, and taught us how to 4 make our way, and on May 14, 2023, Texans and indeed all Americans 5 will join in celebrating Mother's Day in the United States; and

6           WHEREAS, It is fitting that Mother's Day should be observed 7 in the spring, when we see evidence of nature's renewal all around 8 us; mothers give life, and they give unconditional love,
9 encouraging their sons and daughters to work hard and to follow 10 their dreams; and

11           WHEREAS, On this meaningful day, we pay tribute to mothers 12 for their determination to give their children the keys to a bright 13 and promising future; resourceful and fearless in looking out for 14 their loved ones of all ages, they are heroes in every sense of the 15 word; and

16           WHEREAS, Motherhood has been called "the toughest job you'll 17 ever love," for it encompasses a tremendous range of challenges, 18 opportunities, frustrations, and joys, and the ultimate rewards, 19 intangible though they may be, are among life's most poignant and 20 enduring; all mothers share a powerful bond in the love they have 21 for their children, and that love, strong and true, enriches our 22 world beyond measure; now, therefore, be it

23           RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 88th Texas
24 Legislature hereby commemorate Mother's Day 2023, honor all

H.R. No. 1699

1 mothers, including the members of this chamber who are moms, and pay
2 tribute to the mothers who have passed on but endure in the memories
3 of all those who held them dear.