16 thousands of bales of cotton loaded onto trains every year; the 17 railroad helped usher in an era of significant growth for the town, 18 which by the mid-1880s had a district school, three churches, and 19 six general stores; and

20           WHEREAS, Today, Manor is a vibrant and diverse community with

2 WHEREAS, Celebrating their rich history as they work to build
3 an even brighter future, the citizens of Manor are justifiably 4 proud of their community, and it is indeed fitting to honor their
