13 read as follows:

14 (b) On receipt of a referral under Section 53.01(b-1) or 15 54.015(f), a community resource coordination group, a local-level

17 provider shall evaluate the child's case and make recommendations 18 to the juvenile probation department for appropriate services for 19 the child and the child's family.

20 SECTION 7. Chapter 54, Family Code, is amended by adding 21 Section 54.015 to read as follows:

22 Sec. 54.015. JURISDICTIONAL HEARING FOR CHILD YOUNGER THAN 23 12 YEARS OF AGE. (a) On request of any party, a court shall hold a 24 jurisdictional hearing without a jury to determine whether to 25 retain jurisdiction over a child younger than 12 years of age.

26 (b) A hearing under this section must be held:

27 (1) if the child was not released under Section 53.02,

1 immediately before considering whether to release the child at the 2 detention hearing under Section 54.01; or

3 (2) if the child was not detained and the requirements
4 of Sections 53.04, 53.05, 53.06, and 53.07 are satisfied,
5 immediately before the hearing on the petition.

6 (c) At a hearing under this section, the court must 7 determine whether to retain jurisdiction over the child by 8 considering whether:

9 (1) probable cause exists to believe the child engaged
10 in conduct that violates a penal law of the grade of felony;

11 (2) normal interventions by the child's parent,
12 guardian, or family, child protective services, or the child's 13 school will be sufficient to ensure the safety of the public and of 14 the child;

15 (3) intervention by the court is warranted; and

16 (4) it is in the best interest of the child for the 17 court to intervene.

18 (d) If the court retains jurisdiction over a child under 19 this section, the court may proceed with the detention hearing
20 under Section 54.01 or an adjudication hearing under Section 54.03, 21 as applicable.

22 (e) If the court waives jurisdiction over the child, the 23 court shall immediately dismiss the child and the charges against 24 the child. A waiver under this section is a waiver of jurisdiction 25 over the child only for the dismissed charges.

26 (f) If the court waives jurisdiction over the child, the 27 court shall notify the person who conducted the preliminary

1 investigation of the child under Section 53.01 of the court's 2 waiver of jurisdiction. The person may, as appropriate, refer the 3 child's case to a community resource coordination group,
4 local-level interagency staffing group, or other community
5 juvenile services provider for services under Section 53.011.

6 SECTION 8. Sections 8.07(d) and (e), Penal Code, are 7 amended to read as follows:

8 (d) Notwithstanding Subsection (a), a person may not be 9 prosecuted for or convicted of an offense described by Subsection
10 (a)(4) or (5) that the person committed when younger than 12 [~~10~~]
11 years of age.

12 (e) A person who is at least 12 [~~10~~] years of age but younger
13 than 15 years of age is presumed incapable of committing an offense
14 described by Subsection (a)(4) or (5), other than an offense under a 15 juvenile curfew ordinance or order. This presumption may be 16 refuted if the prosecution proves to the court by a preponderance of 17 the evidence that the actor had sufficient capacity to understand 18 that the conduct engaged in was wrong at the time the conduct was 19 engaged in. The prosecution is not required to prove that the actor 20 at the time of engaging in the conduct knew that the act was a 21 criminal offense or knew the legal consequences of the offense.

22 SECTION 9. The following provisions are repealed:

- 23 (1) Article 45.058(j), Code of Criminal Procedure;
- 24 (2) Sections 37.124(d) and 37.126(c), Education Code;
- 25 (3) Section 53.011(d), Family Code; and
- 26 (4) Section 42.01(f), Penal Code.

27 SECTION 10. The changes in law made by this Act apply only

1 to an offense committed or conduct that occurs on or after the 2 effective date of this Act. An offense committed or conduct that 3 occurred before that date is governed by the law in effect on the 4 date the offense was committed or the conduct occurred, and the 5 former law is continued in effect for that purpose. For purposes of 6 this section, an offense was committed or conduct occurred before 7 the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense or 8 conduct occurred before that date.

9 SECTION 11. This Act takes effect September 1, 2023.
