

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1                   WHEREAS, The Lone Star State has benefited enormously from 2 the contributions of its Italian American residents; and

3                   WHEREAS, During the 17th, 18th, and early 19th centuries, the 4 few Italians who came to Texas were mainly explorers, adventurers,
5 or missionaries; Italians began to play a larger role toward the end
6 of the 19th century, when Piedmontese made their homes in Montague
7 County and Sicilians settled in the lower Brazos valley and on the 8 Galveston County mainland; Modenese, Venetians, and Piedmontese
9 worked the coal mines at Thurber, and Italian financier Joseph 10 Telfener brought some 1,200 Lombards to help construct the New 11 York, Texas and Mexican Railway between Victoria and Rosenberg; and

12                   WHEREAS, Most of the railway builders and coal miners moved 13 back to Italy or on to other places when their work was completed;
14 however, the Italian American community in the Brazos valley fanned
15 out into surrounding areas, and settlements in Houston, Galveston,
16 and San Antonio expanded rapidly; new residents founded churches, 17 newspapers, and benevolent-fraternal organizations, as well as 18 businesses; prominent Italian Americans of the 20th century include
19 bootmaker Sam Lucchese, sculptor Pompeo Coppini, rancher Antonio 20 Mateo Bruni, and agriculturalist-developer Biagio Varisco; the 21 towns of Bruni and Varisco and such names as Bruni Park, Varisco 22 Airport, Liggio Street, and Laneri Avenue are a testament to the 23 achievements of Italian Americans; and 24

1           WHEREAS, Through the years, individuals of Italian descent
2 have excelled in all sectors of our society and economy, enriching 3 our cultural tapestry, enhancing our prosperity, and securing the 4 Lone Star State's reputation as a land of promise and possibility;
5 most recently, Italian Americans have made prominent contributions
6 throughout the state in such areas as aerospace, energy, 7 technology, science, research, and arts and culture, in addition to 8 construction and economic development projects; June 2 represents 9 an ideal date on which to honor all of those accomplishments, as 10 Italians around the world celebrate this day as Festa della 11 Repubblica to commemorate the 1946 referendum that ended the 12 monarchy in Italy and established a republic and to commemorate 13 over 160 years since the unification of Italy; now, therefore, be it

14           RESOLVED, That the 88th Legislature of the State of Texas
15 hereby designate June 2 as Italian Heritage Day; and, be it further

16           RESOLVED, That, in accordance with the provisions of Section
17 391.004\(d\), Government Code, this designation remain in effect 18 until the 10th anniversary of the date this resolution is finally 19 passed by the legislature.
