

By: Hughes

S.C.R. No. 51

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, American Heritage Girl troops from across Texas are 2 gathering in Austin on May 11, 2023, to celebrate American Heritage
3 Girls Day at the State Capitol; and

4 WHEREAS, For nearly three decades, the American Heritage
5 Girls organization has sought to promote integrity through service
6 to God, family, community, and country; girls ages 5 through 18 may 7 participate in activities that are designed to encourage teamwork, 8 build courage and confidence, and foster spiritual, character, and 9 social development; and

10 WHEREAS, The organization strives to help girls acquire life 11 skills through a badge program that includes such subjects as 12 personal well-being, the arts, and science and technology; today, 13 it boasts membership in all 50 states and 15 countries around the 14 world; and

15 WHEREAS, By inspiring young women to achieve their greatest 16 potential as engaged citizens and leaders, American Heritage Girls 17 is enriching countless lives, and the group is indeed deserving of 18 special praise; now, therefore, be it

19 RESOLVED, That the 88th Legislature of the State of Texas
20 hereby recognize May 11, 2023, as American Heritage Girls Day at the 21 State Capitol and extend a warm welcome to the visiting delegation.