

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 51

WHEREAS, The Bowie News celebrated the 100th anniversary of its founding in 2022; and

WHEREAS, Originally known as the Bowie Booster, this respected community newspaper was first published by Robert Murphy on February 9, 1922; in the late 1930s, it was purchased by Lum Lovette and renamed the Bowie News; the publication went on to change hands several times during the decades that followed, and in 1953, it was combined with the Montague County Times under the ownership of Harlow E. Tibbetts; in 1958, the paper released a special 92-page issue in honor of Montague County's centennial, which remains an indispensable chronicle of the county's history today; and

WHEREAS, The Bowie News was purchased by James H. Winter in 1965, and during his 37-year tenure, it adopted new technology and won top awards from the Texas Press Association and other media organizations; after Mr. Winter's passing, his son Michael Winter assumed ownership of the paper in 2011, and he went on to launch Post Oak Media with the Bowie News as its flagship publication; in the years since, the paper has expanded its coverage to all of Montague County, and it now operates a popular website, social media pages, and an e-subscription service; and

WHEREAS, In addition to multiple awards from the Texas Press Association for newswriting, photography, sports coverage, and advertising design, the staff of the Bowie News has been recognized with the TPA Community Service Award for its Build a Better Bowie campaign and with the Community Support Award from the Bowie Chamber of Commerce; recently, the paper was presented with a Texas Treasure Business Award in recognition of its century of service to the community; and

WHEREAS, The Bowie News has served as a vital resource to generations of Montague County residents, and it is a pleasure to pay tribute to the publication for its strong commitment to both quality journalism and community engagement; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 88th Legislature, hereby honor the Bowie News on the occasion of its 100th anniversary and extend to all those associated with the paper sincere best wishes for continued success with their important work.
