

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 75

WHEREAS, Charity Ballmann, a nursing professional at Medical City Healthcare in Little Elm, was named one of the 25 Outstanding Texas Nurses for 2022 by the Texas Nurses Association; and

WHEREAS, This prestigious award recognizes registered nurses across the state who have distinguished themselves as resourceful and innovative frontline heroes during an unprecedented public health crisis while helping to ensure a culture of compassionate care at the institutions they serve; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Ballmann was honored for her exemplary efforts to foster a positive working environment and for sharing information on best practices with other hospitals; under her leadership, her unit achieved the lowest COVID-19 mortality rates in the HCA Healthcare system as well as high patient experience scores; and

WHEREAS, The Outstanding Texas Nurses award brings well-deserved recognition to individuals who have gone above and beyond to serve their patients and their communities, and it is a privilege to join in commending Charity Ballmann for her exceptional contributions to her profession; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 88th Legislature, hereby congratulate Charity Ballmann on her selection as one of the Texas Nurses Association 25 Outstanding Texas Nurses for 2022 and extend to her sincere best wishes for continued success in her important work; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for Ms. Ballmann as an expression of high regard from the Texas Senate.

Springer

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on January 24, 2023.

Secretary of the Senate

Member, Texas Senate