C.S.H.B. No. 3749

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to the regulation of the provision of elective intravenous therapy.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. This Act shall be known as Jenifer's Law.

SECTION 2. Subtitle B, Title 3, Occupations Code, is amended by adding Chapter 172 to read as follows:

CHAPTER 172. PROVISION OF ELECTIVE INTRAVENOUS THERAPY

SUBCHAPTER A. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 172.001. DEFINITIONS. In this chapter:

(1) "Advanced practice registered nurse" has the meaning assigned by Section 301.152.

(2) "Elective intravenous therapy" means a procedure:
(A) to administer fluids, nutrients, medications, or blood directly into a patient's bloodstream through a vein;

(B) that is sought by the patient to alleviate symptoms of temporary discomfort or improve temporary wellness; and

(C) that is not administered in:
(i) a physician's office;
(ii) a health facility licensed under Subtitle B, Title 4, Health and Safety Code;

(iii) a mental hospital licensed under Chapter 577, Health and Safety Code; or

(iv) a hospital maintained or operated by this state.

(3) "Physician assistant" means a person who holds a license issued under Chapter 204.

(4) "Registered nurse" means a person licensed by the Texas Board of Nursing to practice professional nursing.

SUBCHAPTER B. ELECTIVE INTRAVENOUS THERAPY

Sec. 172.051. DELEGATION OF PRESCRIBING OR ORDERING ELECTIVE INTRAVENOUS THERAPY. (a) A physician may delegate the act of prescribing or ordering elective intravenous therapy to:

(1) a physician assistant acting under adequate physician supervision; or

(2) an advanced practice registered nurse acting under adequate physician supervision.

(b) A physician may delegate the act of administering elective intravenous therapy to:

(1) a physician assistant acting under adequate physician supervision;

(2) an advanced practice registered nurse acting under adequate physician supervision; or

(3) a registered nurse acting under adequate physician supervision.

(c) A physician's authority to delegate the act of prescribing or ordering elective intravenous therapy is subject to Subchapter B, Chapter 157.

(d) A prescriptive authority agreement relating to elective intravenous therapy is included in the maximum number of

1 prescriptive authority agreements authorized under Section
2 157.0512(c). The exception provided in Section 157.0512(d) does
3 not apply to a prescriptive authority agreement relating to
4 elective intravenous therapy.

5 SECTION 3. The changes in law made by this Act apply to the 6 performance of a medical act on or after the effective date of this 7 Act under a physician's delegation, regardless of:

- 8 (1) the manner in which the delegation is made; and 9 (2) whether the delegation is made before, on, or
10 after the effective date of this Act.

11 SECTION 4. This Act takes effect September 1, 2025.
