9 publishes in the election order or by other means ballot
10 proposition language proposing an amendment to the city charter or 11 a voter-initiated initiative or referendum as requested by 12 petition, a registered voter eligible to vote in the election may 13 submit the proposition for review by the secretary of state.

4 compel the city's governing body to comply with the requirement
5 that a ballot proposition must substantially submit the question 6 with such definiteness, certainty, and facial neutrality that the 7 voters are not misled, the court shall make its determination
8 without delay and may order the city to use ballot proposition
9 language drafted by the court.

10 (b) The court may award a plaintiff or relator who 11 substantially prevails in a mandamus action described by Subsection

17 Following a final nonappealable judgment containing a finding by a 18 court that a ballot proposition drafted by a city failed to 19 substantially submit the question with such definiteness,
20 certainty, and facial neutrality that the voters are not misled, 21 the city shall submit to the secretary of state for approval any 22 proposition to be voted on at an election held by the city before 23 the fourth anniversary of the court's finding.
