

By: Birdwell

S.R. No. 28

SENATE RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the citizens of Hood County, who are celebrating Hood County Day at the State Capitol on February 6, 2025; and

WHEREAS, Hood County was established in 1866 by an act of the 11th Texas Legislature; the county seat, Granbury, is renowned for its charm, historic downtown, and dynamic community, and Hood County is noted for the area's rich land well-suited for agricultural purposes; and

WHEREAS, The county offers a variety of scenic locales, including Lake Granbury, which was a driving force behind Hood County's population increase and is a popular destination for fishing, boating, and other recreational activities; and

WHEREAS, Hood County is home to the 355th Judicial District Court, which is presided over by Judge Bryan Bufkin, and Ron Massingill serves as Hood County judge; the county boasts significant cultural and historical landmarks, including the Hood County Courthouse Historic District, the stately Granbury Opera House, Granbury Live, and the Acton Cemetery, where Elizabeth Crockett, the second wife of Davy Crockett, is buried; and

WHEREAS, Hood County Day at the Capitol is indeed a fitting opportunity for city and county leaders, members of the business community, and residents of Hood County to join together at the

S.R. No. 28

State Capitol to celebrate their county and its rich history as they look ahead toward its bright future; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 89th Legislature, hereby commend the citizens of Hood County on their many contributions to the prosperity of the Lone Star State and extend to all best wishes for a successful and memorable Hood County Day; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared in honor of this special occasion.