3 respected civic leader and friend; and

4 WHEREAS, Born Ruth Margaret Blackwell on March 2, 1914, in 5 Lockhart, she was a descendant of two pioneer Texas families;
6 during her childhood, she lived in towns in Texas and throughout the 7 nation while her father served as pipeline superintendent for 8 Atlantic Pipeline during the construction of the "Big Inch" 9 project, which ran from Texas to Pennsylvania; and

10 WHEREAS, "Sue," as she was nicknamed in the fifth grade, was a 11 popular young woman and cheerleader at Lockhart High School, one of 12 13 schools she attended in Texas; named Miss Lockhart in 1932, she 13 graduated from Allentown High School in Pennsylvania that same 14 year; and

15 WHEREAS, In 1939, while employed as a beautician in Lockhart,
16 she married Bennie W. Bock, her fifth-grade boyfriend, on August 8; 17 five years later, she and her husband moved with their 2-year-old
18 son to New Braunfels, where her husband took over the Ford 19 dealership during a difficult period when car manufacturing had 20 ground to a halt at the height of World War II; and

21 WHEREAS, Over the course of the next 50 years, Mrs. Bock
22 served as her husband's strongest supporter as together they built
23 Bock Motor Company, New Braunfels Ford Mercury, and Seguin Ford 24 Mercury into thriving enterprises; and

1 WHEREAS, This gracious lady came from a family devoted to 2 public service, and she greatly enjoyed being a hostess and a 3 helpmate to her husband during his involvement in state and 4 national politics; moreover, she was a dedicated community
5 volunteer with such organizations as United Fund, Easter Seals, the 6 PTA, and First United Methodist Church; and

7 WHEREAS, Education was another priority for both Mrs. Bock
8 and her husband; they took pleasure in assisting young people and 9 for many years opened their home to contestants competing in the 10 Texas Junior Miss Contest while the competition was held in New 11 Braunfels; as a fitting tribute to the lives of this remarkable
12 couple, the Bock family has established the Sue and Ben W. Bock 13 Scholarship Fund for graduating senior women at New Braunfels and 14 Lockhart high schools; and

15 WHEREAS, Mrs. Bock continued her involvement with community 16 affairs throughout her life, and in 1998 she was named Volunteer of 17 the Year by the Hummel Museum and Most Outstanding Volunteer for 18 Community Service in the Historic Preservation Field by the New 19 Braunfels Chamber of Commerce; an officer of the Hummel Club and the 20 Gay 40's Club, a social club founded in 1940, this high-energy
21 individual counted the Sophienburg Museum and Archives among her
22 interests as well as card-playing and creating her own Christmas 23 cards and tree ornaments; and

24 WHEREAS, Those who were fortunate enough to know "Sue" Bock 25 will long miss her passion for life and her generous spirit, and she 26 will long be remembered with affection in the hearts and minds of 27 the countless people whose lives she touched; now, therefore, be it

1 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 78th Texas
2 Legislature, 2nd Called Session, hereby pay tribute to the life of 3 Ruth Margaret "Sue" Blackwell Bock and extend sincere sympathy to
