

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, The family and friends of Ann Marie Davis-Meyer of 2 Round Rock suffered a great loss with the passing of this beloved 3 woman on June 5, 2003, at the age of 63; and

4 WHEREAS, Mrs. Davis-Meyer was born July 2, 1939, in Taylor,
5 Texas, and graduated from high school in Lake Charles, Louisiana; 6 she worked for a period in the printing trade, during which time she 7 belonged to the Graphic Artists International Union; and

8 WHEREAS, In 1974 Mrs. Davis-Meyer joined the staff of the 9 Texas Legislative Council, where she remained until her retirement
10 in 2001; she began her career with the council in the proofreading
11 department and spent 20 years there before transferring to the data 12 transcription section in 1994; and

13 WHEREAS, Highly valued for her skills, the excellence of her 14 work, and her institutional knowledge, she was also treasured for 15 the cheerful zest with which she approached life and for her
16 unfailing thoughtfulness and generosity toward others; her 17 warmheartedness was expressed in many ways, as in remembering 18 colleagues with a gift on their birthday and at Christmas; those 19 presents frequently included a Beanie Baby, until virtually every 20 desk in data transcription boasted one of the little toys; and

21 WHEREAS, A lover of country music, she also enjoyed trying 22 her luck--generally, her very good luck--at the football pools, the 23 lottery, bingo, and occasionally a casino; she was fond of dogs, as 24 well, and refused to let an allergy to them stand in the way of

1 adopting one; and

2 WHEREAS, Ann Marie Davis married Kenneth Meyer in 1987, and 3 with their union each partner delighted in gaining four additional 4 children; Mrs. Davis-Meyer found her deepest source of pleasure and 5 pride in her large, lively, and close-knit family; and

6 WHEREAS, Although Ann Marie Davis-Meyer completed her
7 journey on this earth far too soon, those who treasured this bright
8 and caring spirit are deeply thankful that their lives intertwined,
9 and the love they shared with her will live forever in their hearts;
10 now, therefore, be it

11 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 78th Texas
