H.R. No. 30

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, An "exemplary" rating, the highest classification
2 conferred on schools by the Texas Education Agency, has been 3 awarded to Florence J. Scott Elementary School in Roma for the 4 2002-2003 school year; and

5 WHEREAS, Opened in 1957, Scott Elementary is a Title I campus
6 that provides instruction to more than 600 students in grades K-4;
7 to meet the varying needs of its children, the school offers ESL and 8 a transitional bilingual program, as well as Read Naturally and 9 LeapFrog--two highly regarded programs used nationwide to improve 10 literacy and to provide interactive, multisensory electronic 11 learning, respectively; and

12 WHEREAS, The school carefully assesses student skills and 13 acts promptly to aid children in need of additional help;
14 instructional assistants and tutorial programs play an important 15 role in supporting the school's mission, and strong parental 16 involvement constitutes another major pillar of the school's 17 success; and

18 WHEREAS, Scott Elementary is named in honor of Florence J.
19 Scott, who served as Starr County school superintendent in the 20 1920s and 1930s and as the first superintendent of the Roma 21 Independent School District, from 1950 to 1957; a dynamic woman of 22 wide-ranging talents, Mrs. Scott is remembered for her tremendous 23 contributions to education in Starr County, which included--in the 24 1930s alone--the reorganization of the county's schools, the

1 certification of all teachers, the building of two new schools, and 2 the creation of a student loan fund; instrumental in the 3 establishment of the first library in Rio Grande City, she also 4 edited the English section of a local newspaper and devoted many 5 years to researching and preserving the history of the Rio Grande 6 Valley; and

7 WHEREAS, All those who share in the work of Scott Elementary
8 are doing their utmost to nurture its students' joy in learning 9 while giving them a solid foundation for future studies, and their 10 shining achievement demonstrates the continuing capacity of our 11 public schools to provide young Texans with an exceptional
12 education; now, therefore, be it

13 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 78th Texas
14 Legislature, 3rd Called Session, hereby congratulate 15 superintendent Jesus O. Guerra, principal Norabel Salinas, 16 assistant principals Noe Muniz and Diana Salinas, counselor San 17 Juanita Guerra, and all the teachers and staff at Florence J. Scott 18 Elementary School on the "exemplary" rating accorded the school by 19 the Texas Education Agency, and that it extend to them sincere best 20 wishes for continued success; and, be it further

21 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 22 prepared for the administration, staff, and students of Scott 23 Elementary as an expression of high regard by the Texas House of 24 Representatives.
