

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATURE 3rd CALLED SESSION -2003

September 15, 2003

TO: Honorable Dennis Bonnen, Chair, House Committee on Environmental Regulation

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB36 by Smith, Wayne (Relating to compliance histories for and incentives to reward compliance performance by entities regulated by the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality.), As Introduced

No significant fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

The bill makes changes to the Commission on Environmental Quality's performance-based regulatory program. None of the changes made by the bill is expected to result in significant fiscal implications to the agency.

The bill would take effect immediately, assuming that it received the requisite two-thirds majority votes in both houses of the Legislature, otherwise it would take effect January 15, 2004.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implications to units of local government are anticipated.
