15 Agency Administrator of the Year by the Texas Public Employees
16 Association and Professional Administrator of the Year by the 17 Central Texas Chapter of the American Society for Public
18 Administration; for her commitment to ensuring that ERS
19 accomplishes its mission of efficiently delivering high-quality 20 benefits, the American Society for Public Administration and the 21 National Academy of Public Administration have conferred on her the 22 prestigious National Public Service Award; and

23           WHEREAS, A highly regarded state government and budget
24 expert, Ms. Beckett served Governor Bill Clements as the director

1 of the Office of Budget and Planning and Lieutenant Governor Bob
2 Bullock as budget director; she also served the lieutenant governor 3 as senior advisor on issues concerning employee benefits; and

4 WHEREAS, This distinguished Texan began her career in state
5 government in the 1970s as a research assistant to a special state
6 committee formed by Governor Dolph Briscoe to study public employee
7 benefits; she later worked in the Texas House of Representatives
8 and served as a budget examiner for the Legislative Budget Board; 9 she has managed the spending analysis section in the office of the 10 comptroller of public accounts and served as a special assistant to 11 the director of the Texas Legislative Council; and

12 WHEREAS, A graduate of Texas A&M University, where she 13 received a bachelor's degree in political science, Ms. Beckett went 14 on to earn a master of public affairs degree from the Lyndon B.
15 Johnson School of Public Affairs at The University of Texas at 16 Austin; and

17 WHEREAS, After stepping down from her post at ERS, Ms.
18 Beckett will be moving to Belgrade, Serbia, where she will join the 19 staff of the U.S. Treasury Department and serve as resident budget 20 advisor to the Serbian minister of finance and economy; and

21 WHEREAS, For three decades, Sheila Beckett has given 22 unstintingly of her talents and expertise in behalf of the people of 23 Texas, and her unwavering commitment to this state and its citizens 24 represents the very best in government service; now, therefore, be
