

Amend SB 86 in SECTION 1 of the bill, immediately following proposed Section 51.803(e), Education Code (page 3, between lines 7 and 8), by inserting the following:

(f) A general academic teaching institution is not required to fill more than 60 percent of the institution's total number of spaces available for first-time resident undergraduate students at the institution through the admission of applicants under Subsection (a). If the number of applications for admission under Subsection (a) received by the institution exceeds 60 percent of the total number of spaces available for first-time resident undergraduate students at the institution, the institution may give automatic admission as provided by this section to those applicants until 60 percent of the institution's total number of spaces available for first-time resident undergraduate students are filled. The institution shall consider the factors listed in Section 51.805 to determine which of the remaining applicants under Subsection (a) the institution will admit.
