(b) An offense under this section is a [~~Class C~~] misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $250 or more than $5,000. Each day of violation constitutes a separate offense.

SECTION _____. Chapter 1053, Occupations Code, is amended by adding Subchapter I to read as follows:

SUBCHAPTER I. PRACTICE BY INTERIOR DESIGNER

Sec. 1053.401. SUPERVISION BY INTERIOR DESIGNER. Each interior design office must have an interior designer or architect who is responsible for interior design work performed at that location. The interior designer or architect shall provide responsible supervisory control over each nonregistered person working at that location in the practice of interior design. Responsible Supervisory Control is the direct responsibility for supervision by an interior designer or architect of the work and decision-making process, including the ability to review, enforce, and control compliance with all design criteria and life safety requirements. For purposes of this subdivision, supervision is not required to be continuous and uninterrupted.

Sec. 1053.402. DUTIES TO CLIENT. (a) Before entering into a contract with a client, an interior designer must clearly determine and disclose the scope and nature of the project and the method of compensation.

(b) An interior designer shall notify each client of the name and address of the board.

Sec. 1053.404. COMPLIANCE WITH CERTAIN REQUIREMENTS. Each interior designer shall practice in compliance with all applicable building codes, fire codes, local regulations, and other safety requirements adopted by the board or another regulatory entity implemented to prohibit practice by persons who:

(1) fail to practice within the bounds of minimum competency requirements; or

(2) otherwise present a danger to the public.

SECTION _____. Section 1053.158, Occupations Code, is repealed.

SECTION _____. The Texas Board of Architectural Examiners shall issue a certificate of registration as an interior designer to a person who applies for registration as an interior designer with the board and pays the required fees before the second anniversary of the effective date of this Act if the person presents evidence satisfactory to the board that the person has passed the examination of the National Council for Interior Design Qualification or a similar national organization recognized by the board.

SECTION _____ (a) The change in law made by this Act to Section 1053.351, Occupations Code, applies only to the punishment for an offense committed on or after the effective date of this Act. For purposes of this section, an offense is committed before the effective date of this Act if any element of the offense occurs before the effective date.

(b) An offense committed before the effective date of this Act is governed by the law in effect on the date the offense was committed, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.

SECTION _____. The Texas Board of Architectural Examiners shall adopt rules as required by Chapter 1053, Occupations Code, as amended by this Act, not later than December 1, 2003.

SECTION _____. The change in law made by this Act to Section 1053.201, Occupations Code, takes effect September 1, 2003, and applies only to an application for an initial or renewal interior designer certificate of registration that is filed with the Texas Board of Architectural Examiners on or after January 1, 2004. An application filed before January 1, 2004, is governed by the law in effect immediately before the effective date of this Act, and the former law is continued in effect for that purpose.
