DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Current law does not specify that a member of the governing body of a state agency or state officer who governs a state agency may not receive compensatory time under this subchapter or another state statute. S.B. 89 clarifies the guidelines for certain state officials.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to any state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Subchapter B, Chapter 659, Government Code, by adding Section 659.024, as follows:

Section 659.024. COMPENSATORY TIME FOR PERSONS GOVERNING STATE AGENCIES. (a) Defines "state agency."

(b) Provides that this section does not apply to an employee who acts as the administrative head of a state agency, including an executive director.

(c) Prohibits a member of the governing body of a state agency or a single state officer who governs a state agency from accruing compensatory time under this subchapter or another state statute.

SECTION 2. Effective date: September 1, 2003.
