DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Currently, taxpayers must bear the expense of collecting delinquent obligations owed to a county. However, the attorney general is granted the authority to collect costs and attorney fees when collecting delinquent obligations owed to the state. Some believe that taxpayers should not have to bear the expense of collecting debts owed to the county. S.B. 604 allows counties to collect from a debtor reasonable attorney fees, investigative costs, and court costs incurred to recover debts.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
