DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Currently, the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) may accept laboratory results from accredited laboratories or in-house and on-site laboratories that are periodically inspected by TCEQ. As proposed, S.B. 934 clarifies that a company that hosts another company on the same site can provide laboratory services that will be accepted by TCEQ; provides that a company can use results from its own laboratories out-of-state if TCEQ has reason to believe the laboratory is controlled as well as laboratories are controlled in Texas; and allows TCEQ to accept laboratory results from inhouse or on-site laboratories that are subject to inspection when the work is being done for a state agency, a charitable organization, or a public-private partnership.
