SECTION 2. Section 5, Texas Probate Code, is amended by amending Subsections (b), (c), (d), and (e) and adding Subsections (b-1)-(b-5), (h), and (i) to read as follows:

(b) In those counties in which there is no statutory probate court, county court at law, or other statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court, all applications, petitions, and motions regarding probate and administrations shall be filed and heard in the county court. In [~~, except that in~~] contested probate matters, the judge of the county court may on the judge's own motion [~~(4)~~] or shall on the motion of any party to the proceeding, according to the motion:

(1) [~~(4)~~] request [~~as provided by Section 25.0022, Government Code,~~] the assignment of a statutory probate court judge to hear the contested portion of the proceeding, as provided by Section 25.0022, Government Code; or

(2) transfer the contested portion of the proceeding

1 to the district court, which may then hear the contested matter as 2 if originally filed in district court.

3 (b-1) If the judge of the county court has not transferred a
4 contested probate matter to the district court at the time a party
5 files a motion for assignment of a statutory probate court judge, 6 the county judge shall grant the motion and may not transfer the 7 matter to district court unless the party withdraws the motion.

8 (b-2) A statutory probate court judge assigned to a
9 contested probate matter as provided by Subsection (b) of this 10 section [~~this subsection~~] has [~~for that matter~~] the jurisdiction
11 and authority granted to a statutory probate court by Sections 5A
12 and 5B of this code. On resolution of a contested matter, including 13 an appeal of a matter, to which a statutory probate court judge has 14 been assigned, the statutory probate court judge shall transfer the 15 resolved portion of the case to the county court for further 16 proceedings not inconsistent with the orders of the statutory 17 probate court judge [~~The county court shall continue to exercise~~
18 ~~jurisdiction over the management of the estate with the exception~~
19 ~~of the contested matter until final disposition of the contested~~
20 ~~matter is made by the assigned judge or the district court~~].

21 (b-3) In contested matters transferred to the district
22 court [~~in those counties~~], the district court has [~~concurrently~~
23 ~~with the county court, shall have~~] the general jurisdiction of a 24 probate court. On [~~Upon~~] resolution of a [~~all pending~~] contested 25 matter, including an appeal of a matter, the district court shall 26 transfer [~~matters,~~] the resolved [~~contested~~] portion of the case 27 [~~probate proceeding shall be transferred by the district court~~] to

1 the county court for further proceedings not inconsistent with the 2 orders of the district court.

3 (b-4) The county court shall continue to exercise
4 jurisdiction over the management of the estate with the exception
5 of the contested matter until final disposition of the contested
6 matter is made by the assigned statutory probate court judge or the 7 district court.

8 (b-5) If a contested portion of the proceeding is 9 transferred to a district court under Subsection (b-3) of this 10 section [~~this subsection~~], the clerk of the district court may 11 perform in relation to the transferred portion of the proceeding
12 any function a county clerk may perform in that type of contested 13 proceeding.

14 (c) In those counties in which there is no statutory probate
15 court, but in which there is a county court at law or other
16 statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court, all 17 applications, petitions, and motions regarding probate and 18 administrations shall be filed and heard in those courts and the 19 constitutional county court [~~, rather than in the district courts~~], 20 unless otherwise provided by law. The judge of a county court may 21 hear any of those matters regarding probate or administrations
22 sitting for the judge of any other county court. In contested
23 probate matters, the judge of the constitutional county court may 24 on the judge's own motion, and shall on the motion of a party to the 25 proceeding, transfer the proceeding to the county court at law or a
26 statutory court exercising the jurisdiction of a probate court
27 other than a statutory probate court. The court to which the

1 proceeding is transferred may hear the proceeding as if originally 2 filed in the court.

3 (d) In those counties in which there is a statutory probate
4 court, all applications, petitions, and motions regarding probate
5 or administrations shall be filed and heard in the statutory 6 probate court [~~, unless otherwise provided by law~~].

7 (e) A statutory probate court has concurrent jurisdiction
8 with the district court in all personal injury, survival, or 9 wrongful death actions by or against a person in the person's 10 capacity as a personal representative, in all actions involving an 11 inter vivos trust, in all actions involving a charitable trust, and 12 in all actions involving a personal representative of an estate in 13 which each other party aligned with the personal representative is 14 not an interested person in that estate [~~testamentary trust~~].

15 (h) A statutory probate court has jurisdiction over any 16 matter appertaining to an estate or incident to an estate and has

18 representative of an estate pending in the statutory probate court
19 is a party.

20 (i) A statutory probate court may exercise the pendent and 21 ancillary jurisdiction necessary to promote judicial efficiency

13 executes his last will, the pretermitted child succeeds to the 14 portion of the testator's separate and community estate to which 15 the pretermitted child would have been entitled pursuant to Section 16 38(a) of this code had the testator died intestate without a
