A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT

relating to state employee military leave.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

SECTION 1. Section 431.005, Government Code, is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 431.005. LEAVE OF ABSENCE FOR PUBLIC OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES. (a) Except as provided by Subsection (b), a [A] person who is a public [~~an~~] officer or employee of the state, a municipality, a county, or another political subdivision of the state and who is a member of the state military forces or a reserve component of the armed forces is entitled to a paid leave of absence from the person's duties on a day on which the person is engaged in authorized training or duty ordered or authorized by proper authority for not more than 15 workdays in a federal fiscal year. During a leave of absence the person may not be subjected to loss of time, efficiency rating, or vacation time [~~, or salary~~].

(b) A [~~Leaves of absence under Subsection (a) may not exceed 15 days in a federal fiscal year, except that a~~] member of the legislature is entitled to pay for all days that the member is absent from a session of the legislature and engaged in training and duty as provided by Subsection (a).

(c) A public [~~state~~] employee who is a member of the state military forces or a reserve component of the armed forces and who is ordered to duty by proper authority is entitled, when relieved

1 from duty, to be restored to the position that the employee held
2 when ordered to duty.

3 SECTION 2. Section 431.0825, Government Code, is amended to 4 read as follows:

5 Sec. 431.0825. EMPLOYEES IN NATIONAL GUARD; EMERGENCY
6 LEAVE. A state employee called to state active duty as a member of 7 the state military forces [~~National Guard~~] by the governor is 8 entitled to receive paid emergency leave without loss of military 9 leave under Section 431.005(a) or annual leave.

10 SECTION 3. Section 659.023, Government Code, is amended by 11 adding Subsection (c) to read as follows:

12 (c) A state agency shall:

13 (1) provide an employee activated to military service
14 as a member of the reserve component of the armed forces with a 15 statement containing the balance of the employee's accrued state 16 compensatory time; and

17 (2) accommodate an employee's request to use the 18 balance of the employee's accrued state compensatory time before 19 the compensatory time expires.

20 SECTION 4. Section 661.903, Government Code, is amended to 21 read as follows:

22 Sec. 661.903. NATIONAL GUARD EMERGENCY. A state employee
23 who is called to state active duty as a member of the state military 24 forces [~~Texas National Guard~~] by the governor because of an 25 emergency is entitled to a leave of absence without a deduction in 26 salary in accordance with Section 431.0825. A state employee who is 27 called to federal active duty as a member of the state military

1 forces may not receive the employee's state salary.

2 SECTION 5. Section 661.904, Government Code, is amended to
3 read as follows:

4 Sec. 661.904. MILITARY LEAVE DURING NATIONAL EMERGENCY.

5 (a) An employee called to active duty during a national emergency 6 to serve in a reserve component of the armed forces of the United 7 States under Title 10 or 32, United States Code, is entitled to an 8 unpaid leave of absence.

9 (b) The employee continues to accrue state service credit 10 for purposes of longevity pay while on military duty described by 11 Subsection (a) but does not accrue vacation or sick leave during an 12 unpaid leave of absence [~~that time~~].

13 (c) The employee may retain [~~retains~~] any accrued vacation
14 or sick leave and is entitled to be credited with those balances on 15 return to state employment from military duty described by 16 Subsection (a). Leave earned while in a state-paid status is 17 credited to the employee's balance when the employee returns to 18 active state employment.

19 (d) The employee may use any accrued vacation leave, earned
20 compensatory leave, or overtime leave under the federal Fair Labor
21 Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. Section 201 et seq.), as amended, 22 in whole or in part, to maintain benefits for the employee or the 23 employee's dependents while the employee is on military duty
24 described by Subsection (a).

25 (e) Before a state employee leaves for military service, the 26 state agency employing the employee shall review with the employee
27 any issues relating to maintaining state health insurance coverage

1 during the employee's military duty, including what the employee
2 needs to do to maintain state health insurance coverage, how health 3 insurance coverage is affected by paid or unpaid leave, and how to 4 pay any premium required for the insurance coverage.

5 (f) A state employee activated for military service may 6 continue to accrue service credit with the Employees Retirement
7 System of Texas by receiving at least one hour of state pay during 8 each month of active military service. The employee may use any 9 combination of paid leave, including state compensatory leave,
10 overtime leave under the federal Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938
11 (29 U.S.C. Section 201 et seq.), as amended, annual leave, military 12 leave, or approved agency differential pay, to qualify for the 13 state pay.

14 SECTION 6. Subchapter Z, Chapter 661, Government Code, is 15 amended by adding Section 661.9041 to read as follows:

16 Sec. 661.9041. DIFFERENTIAL PAY. The administrative head 17 of a state agency may grant sufficient emergency leave as 18 differential pay to a state employee on unpaid military leave if the 19 employee's military gross pay is less than the employee's state
20 gross pay. The combination of emergency leave and military pay may 21 not exceed the employee's actual state gross pay.

22 SECTION 7. This Act takes effect September 1, 2003.
