H.C.R. No. 56

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, State Medicaid spending currently accounts for 2 approximately 22 percent of total state spending; and

3 WHEREAS, Under the Federal Medical Assistance Percentage,
4 the federal share of state Medicaid spending provided to the State
5 of Texas has decreased by 4.2 percent over the past 10 years; and

6 WHEREAS, Average monthly Medicaid caseloads in the State of 7 Texas are projected to increase to 2,885,583 by fiscal year 2005 8 from 2,376,193 in fiscal year 2003; and

9 WHEREAS, Prescription drug costs are a major factor driving 10 Medicaid expenditures, and annual Medicaid prescription levels in 11 the State of Texas are projected to rise to 40,257,515 by fiscal 12 year 2005, from 33,859,094 in fiscal year 2003; and

13 WHEREAS, The Congressional Budget Office projects that 14 Medicaid spending under the current system will more than double by 15 the year 2012; and

16 WHEREAS, Section 1115 of the Social Security Act grants the 17 secretary of health and human services broad authority to waive 18 certain laws relating to Medicaid or SCHIP for the purpose of 19 conducting pilot, experimental, or demonstration projects that are 20 likely to promote the objectives of the program; and

21 WHEREAS, Section 1115 demonstration waivers allow states to 22 change provisions of their Medicaid and SCHIP programs, including 23 eligibility requirements, the scope of services available, the 24 freedom to choose a provider, a provider's choice to participate in

1 a plan, the method of reimbursing providers, and the statewide
2 application of the program; and

3 WHEREAS, The State of Florida has successfully experimented
4 with a consumer-directed care model under a Section 1115
5 demonstration waiver; and

6 WHEREAS, In early 2002, both houses of the legislature of the 7 State of Florida voted unanimously to continue with a
8 consumer-directed care approach; now, therefore, be it

9 RESOLVED, That the 78th Legislature of the State of Texas
10 hereby respectfully urge the secretary of the United States
11 Department of Health and Human Services to authorize any section 12 1115 demonstration waivers, and any other related waivers,
13 requested by the State of Texas for the purposes of implementing a 14 consumer-directed care program under the state Medicaid program;
15 and, be it further

16 RESOLVED, That the Texas secretary of state forward official 17 copies of this resolution to the president of the United States, the 18 speaker of the house of representatives and the president of the 19 senate of the United States Congress, the secretary of the United 20 States Department of Health and Human Services, and all the members
21 of the Texas delegation to the congress with the request that this 22 resolution be officially entered into the Congressional Record of 23 the United States of America.
