

By: Thompson

H.C.R. No. 72

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 WHEREAS, Howard G. Baldwin, Jr., of Austin, whose stellar 2 25-year career in state service was largely devoted to addressing 3 the needs of children, has retired as first assistant attorney
4 general of Texas; and

5 WHEREAS, A board certified family law attorney, Mr. Baldwin
6 has worked as a family law and child support master for Bexar
7 County, as deputy director for government relations for the Texas
8 Department of Protective and Regulatory Services, as a regional 9 director in child support enforcement at the Texas Department of 10 Human Services, and as a deputy chief attorney general in child 11 support litigation; and

12 WHEREAS, While living in San Antonio, he helped to found that 13 city's CASA program, whereby courts appoint trained volunteers to 14 advocate in behalf of abused and neglected children, and he 15 subsequently served as the first statewide CASA president; Mr.
16 Baldwin is currently a board member of the National Child Support 17 Enforcement Association and a board member and former president of 18 the Western Interstate Child Support Enforcement Council; he also 19 serves on the legislative committee of the Family Law Section of the 20 State Bar of Texas, as well as on the state bar's Child Abuse and 21 Neglect Committee and Family Law Council; and

22 WHEREAS, Mr. Baldwin has played a pivotal role in protecting 23 the youngest and most vulnerable of Texans; long a reliable 24 resource for every state legislative committee that deals with

1 abuse, child support, visitation, and parenting issues, he has been 2 instrumental in the development of stronger laws to safeguard
3 children, to increase child support collection, and to strengthen 4 families living in the Lone Star State; and

5 WHEREAS, In recognition of his extensive efforts, Mr. Baldwin
6 has been accorded many honors, including the prestigious Dan R.
7 Price Award for Outstanding Contributions to Family Law; and

8 WHEREAS, This exceptional public servant's untiring
9 commitment to the youth of Texas has brought added support, safety, 10 and stability to the lives of countless children, and it is indeed a 11 privilege to honor him at this time; now, therefore, be it

12 RESOLVED, That the 78th Legislature of the State of Texas
13 hereby congratulate Howard G. Baldwin, Jr., on the occasion of his 14 retirement as first assistant attorney general of Texas and extend 15 to him heartfelt best wishes for continued success and happiness as 16 he embarks on this new chapter in his life; and, be it further

17 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 18 prepared for Mr. Baldwin as an expression of high regard by the 19 Texas House of Representatives and Senate.