H.C.R. No. 73

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1           WHEREAS, Bombarded with media images and messages that seem 2 to glorify irresponsible and destructive behavior and that elevate
3 figures in the sports and entertainment industries to celebrity
4 status despite their flouting of traditional values, a growing
5 number of Americans are becoming increasingly troubled about the 6 state of the union and the character of America's youth; and

7           WHEREAS, Concerns about children in today's society are 8 compounded by highly publicized accounts of violence in our 9 schools, high levels of drug use and promiscuity, and the 10 increasing inability of many young people to fulfill their 11 responsibilities as students; and

12           WHEREAS, Although these behaviors and the self-destructive 13 attitudes that engender them frequently manifest themselves in the 14 classroom and create problems for teachers, school administrators, 15 and other students, they also are awakening a conviction within the 16 education community and among parents, policy makers, and other
17 concerned citizens that our public schools have an important role 18 to play, along with family, church, and the larger community, in 19 helping children develop good consciences and ethical behavior; and

20           WHEREAS, While the primary responsibility for instilling 21 character in our nation's youth rests with each child's parents, our 22 schools can play a pivotal role in reinforcing the values being 23 taught in the home through a curriculum that treats the development 24 of personal character traits as a matter equally as important as

1 academic achievement; and

2 WHEREAS, The public school system's role as a force in 3 society to promulgate the fundamental values and beliefs on which 4 this nation was founded becomes more important at a time when 5 changes in family structures and the pressures of the modern age
6 leave many parents, whether busy with work or absent altogether,
7 unable to impart those values and beliefs that once were vital 8 components of family life; and

9 WHEREAS, Numerous school districts, both within the state and 10 across the nation, have either implemented character education
11 programs or successfully incorporated a virtues program into their 12 daily curricula for students in kindergarten through 12th grade; 13 and

14 WHEREAS, Often developed as a joint project involving 15 faith-based communities, parent-teacher organizations, public
16 school administrators and teachers, the local business community,
17 students, and elected school officials, virtues education programs 18 focus the attention of schoolchildren on those character traits of 19 prominent past and present individuals that display the virtues
20 society most highly prizes; and

21 WHEREAS, By stressing the fundamental importance of values
22 that all can agree are worth emulating, virtues education programs
23 can help solve problems such as student violence, teenage 24 pregnancies, and substance abuse; help raise levels of academic 25 performance; and restore hope in the future of society; now,
26 therefore, be it

27 RESOLVED, That the 78th Legislature of the State of Texas

1 hereby direct the Texas Education Agency and the State Board of 2 Education to adopt and promote a virtues education program and to 3 provide school districts with materials and support to assist in 4 the program's implementation; and, be it further

5       RESOLVED, That the virtues education program include
6 age-appropriate curricula and educational material, be structured 7 to provide instruction beginning in kindergarten and continuing 8 through 12th grade, and include consideration of the virtues of 9 attentiveness, availability, citizenship, compassion, confidence,
10 contentment, courage, dependability, diligence, discretion,
11 efficiency, encouragement, enthusiasm, fairness, faith,
12 forgiveness, friendliness, generosity, gentleness, gratitude,
13 honesty, humility, initiative, joy, kindness, obedience, optimism,
14 patience, peace, perseverance, purity, respect, responsibility,
15 reverence, self-control, thoughtfulness, and wisdom; and, be it
16 further

17       RESOLVED, That the Texas secretary of state forward official 18 copies of this resolution to the commissioner of education and to 19 the chair of the State Board of Education.
