HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

- 1 WHEREAS, health care costs are rising dramatically each year;
- 2 and
- 3 WHEREAS, many state and local governments, including the
- 4 State of Texas, provide health insurance programs for both their
- 5 employees and retirees; and
- 6 WHEREAS, these programs allow employees and retirees access
- 7 to health care at a reasonable cost; and
- 8 WHEREAS, some of the programs allow employees to pay for
- 9 their health insurance premiums and other medical expenses on a
- 10 pre-tax basis through cafeteria plans or flexible spending
- 11 accounts, as authorized by the federal Internal Revenue Code; and
- 12 WHEREAS, current federal law fails to provide the same
- 13 mechanism for retirees to pay for their health insurance premiums
- and other medical expenses on a pre-tax basis; and
- WHEREAS, retirees on a fixed budget are disproportionately
- 16 affected by rising health care costs; and
- 17 WHEREAS, this disparity of tax treatment between employees
- and retirees violates simple notions of fairness; and
- WHEREAS, H.R. 1776, the Pension Preservation and Savings
- 20 Expansion Act of 2003, was introduced in the United States Congress
- 21 on April 11; and
- WHEREAS, the Pension Preservation and Savings Expansion Act
- of 2003 contains a provision modifying the federal Internal Revenue
- 24 Code so that retirees may pay for health insurance and other medical
