H.J.R. No. 69

A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing a constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to set a lower limit on the maximum average annual percentage increase in the appraised value of a residence homestead for ad valorem tax purposes.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
SECTION 1. Section 1(i), Article VIII, Texas Constitution, is amended to read as follows:

(i) Notwithstanding Subsections (a) and (b) 8 of this section, the Legislature by general law may limit the maximum 9 average annual percentage increase in the appraised value of 10 residence homesteads for ad valorem tax purposes to zero [10] 11 12 percent, or a greater percentage, for each year since the most recent tax appraisal. A limitation on appraisal increases 13 14 authorized by this subsection:

(1) takes effect as to a residence homestead on the later of the effective date of the law imposing the limitation or January 1 of the tax year following the first tax year the owner qualifies the property for an exemption under Section 1-b of this article; and 20 (2) Expires on January 1 of the first tax year that 21 neither the owner of the property when the limitation took effect 22 nor the owner's spouse or surviving spouse qualifies for an 23 exemption under Section 1-b of this article.
