

R E S O L U T I O N

1 WHEREAS, Kathleen Curp, a teacher at Anderson High School in 2 Austin, has devised a visionary way to involve students in the 3 political process; and

4 WHEREAS, This dedicated educator assigned the students in her 5 government classes to volunteer eight hours of service to the 6 political campaign of their choice during the 2002 election season 7 and report back on their experiences; and

8 WHEREAS, This assignment not only taught these young Texans 9 valuable lessons in the workings of the democratic process, but 10 also encouraged them to take an active role in the future of their 11 community; the lessons they learned from this project will have 12 continuing benefits for them throughout their lives; and

13 WHEREAS, It is essential that our children develop a strong 14 understanding of the political environment, and it is most 15 appropriate that we pay tribute to Ms. Curp, who is working to 16 instill this valuable knowledge in our next generation of leaders;
17 now, therefore, be it

18 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 78th Texas
19 Legislature hereby commend Kathleen Curp for her innovative 20 approach to teaching and exemplary civic consciousness and extend 21 to her sincere best wishes for success in all her future endeavors;
22 and, be it further

23 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 24 prepared for Ms. Curp as an expression of high regard by the Texas

H.R. No. 196

1 House of Representatives.
