

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, The passing of D. L. Alford, Jr., on December 9, 2 2002, at the age of 87, brought a great loss to the family and 3 friends of this notable family man and civic leader, and it is 4 indeed appropriate to honor his memory at this time; and

5           WHEREAS, A Caldwell native and fifth generation Texan, Mr.
6 Alford was born January 24, 1915, to Daniel Lee Alford, Sr., and 7 Annie Klukan Alford; he was a descendant of Philip Bruce Scott, who 8 came to Texas from Tennessee in 1831 to join Robertson's Colony in 9 what is now Burleson County; and

10           WHEREAS, Mr. Alford was a lifelong lover of music who 11 attended Baylor University on a music scholarship after graduating 12 from the Caldwell public school system; during his years at Baylor 13 he was a member of the Golden Wave Band and formed Dan Alford and his 14 Varsitonians, a popular dance orchestra that played throughout 15 Texas for several years; and

16           WHEREAS, He entered the insurance business and later
17 established his own underwriting company, D. L. Alford, Jr., 18 Insurance; on December 26, 1939, he married the former Catherine 19 Grace Guynes, who preceded him in death after more than 60 years of 20 marriage; during World War II he served his fellow citizens as a 21 field director for the American Red Cross; and

22           WHEREAS, Mr. Alford's civic endeavors included charter
23 membership with the Caldwell Chamber of Commerce, which he served 24 as president, board member, and industrial committee chairman, and

1 the establishment of the Burleson County Industrial Foundation; he 2 also was a director of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce and the 3 Brazos Valley Development Council and was an alderman on the 4 Caldwell City Council; and

5 WHEREAS, Affectionately known by friends as "Mr. Rotary,"
6 this esteemed gentleman held leadership positions with Rotary
7 International on the local, state, national, and international 8 levels; in 1979 he served as district governor of District 587, and 9 throughout his long and productive tenure with the organization he 10 worked tirelessly to aid those in need; and

11 WHEREAS, A lifelong member of First Presbyterian Church of 12 Caldwell and an associate member of First United Methodist Church
13 of Caldwell, Mr. Alford was a deeply religious man whose faith, 14 integrity, and generosity were equaled by few; his loss has left a 15 void in the lives of those who knew and loved him, yet they can take 16 solace in the fact that he lived a truly joyful and meaningful life;
17 now, therefore, be it
