

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, After nearly three decades of journalistic
2 integrity and achievement, Norma Adams-Wade retired from The Dallas 3 Morning News on December 31, 2002; and

4           WHEREAS, Her dream of becoming a writer was conceived in the 5 fourth grade, when a local reporter, Julia Scott Reed, visited her 6 class and instilled the goal to become a journalist in a bright and 7 serious young girl; and

8           WHEREAS, Ms. Adams-Wade's dedication and hard work resulted 9 in her graduation from The University of Texas at Austin, and her 10 dreams came to fruition in 1974 when she became the first full-time 11 black reporter on staff for The Dallas Morning News; and

12           WHEREAS, Gender and ethnic stereotypes did not daunt this 13 bold, barrier-breaching woman as she dispelled doubts from within 14 her company and the community at large with her disciplined and 15 honest accounts of racial issues and views of the black community; 16 and

17           WHEREAS, The substantial writing talents of Ms. Adams-Wade 18 were drawn on to cover subjects as diverse as health, housing,
19 education, and human interest features; her investigative work 20 exposed mismanagement in public housing in the 1970s, for which she 21 received the Joe Dealey Publisher's Award, and she proudly led the 22 paper's first comprehensive coverage of Black History Month in 23 February 1985; and

24           WHEREAS, A cofounder of the National Association of Black

1 Journalists, which now has approximately 3,000 members, Ms.
2 Adams-Wade also founded the association's five-state regional 3 chapter and served as its director for more than two years; and

4 WHEREAS, Widely recognized for her notable community
5 contributions, Ms. Adams-Wade received the Dallas-Fort Worth 6 Association of Black Communicators' Lifetime Achievement Award and 7 the NAACP Dallas Chapter's Juanita Craft Award for excellence and 8 community service in journalism among her many honors; and

9 WHEREAS, Since her retirement, Ms. Adams-Wade has not 10 completely deprived Texans of her insightful opinions and keen 11 observations, as she continues to write a weekly column for the 12 paper; and

13 WHEREAS, Norma Adams-Wade has made valuable contributions
14 during her distinguished career as a skilled reporter who opened 15 the doors of opportunity for those who would follow in her
16 footsteps; now, therefore, be it

17 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 78th Texas
18 Legislature hereby honor Norma Adams-Wade for her outstanding 19 contributions to the field of journalism and extend to her sincere 20 best wishes for a happy and rewarding retirement; and, be it further

21 RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 22 prepared for Ms. Adams-Wade as an expression of high regard by the 23 Texas House of Representatives.
