1 WHEREAS, Since 1979, the Greater Houston Preservation
2 Alliance has recognized local contributors to the preservation,
3 restoration, and enhancement of Houston's architectural heritage
4 through the presentation of its Good Brick Award, and it is a
5 pleasure to join in honoring one of this year's deserving 6 recipients; and

7 WHEREAS, Fondly remembered by many Texans as the site of 8 Weldon Cafeteria, the building at 4916 Main Street was designed by 9 MacKie & Kamrath Architects, and its two-story, cantilevered dining 10 room garnered significant media attention when it opened in 1949;
11 the cafeteria closed in the early 1970s, and over the ensuing years,
12 tenants in the building made extensive alterations to the original
13 structure, including the installation of a 9-foot suspended ceiling
14 in the dining room and the construction of a gas station out front; 15 and

16 WHEREAS, In 1999, the gas station and building were purchased
17 by one owner, and the gas station was torn down; shortly thereafter,
18 Ray + Hollington Architects leased the space for use as its studio
19 and quickly set about returning the building to its original 20 splendor, restoring MacKie & Kamrath's interior design in the 21 process; and

22 WHEREAS, A true architectural treasure, this structure is yet
23 again a valued part of the Houston landscape and is certain to be 24 admired for years to come; now, therefore, be it
