

R E S O L U T I O N

1           WHEREAS, Oscar Servando Santos, Jr., of Pharr has earned the 2           distinction of being salutatorian at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Memorial
3           High School, and for achieving this auspicious honor he is truly 4           deserving of special legislative recognition; and

5           WHEREAS, Earning the right to call oneself "salutatorian"
6           requires not only intellect and aptitude, but four years of 7           dedication to the highest academic standards; the salutatorian must 8           display a firm understanding of the entire curriculum, from math 9           and science to language arts to social studies, while demonstrating 10          an unwavering commitment to education; and

11          WHEREAS, The salutatorian serves as a role model and leads by 12          example, combining a steadfast vision of excellence with a 13          tenacious enthusiasm; the competition for this coveted honor is 14          often fierce, although the spirit of the rivalry remains rooted in a 15          tradition of goodwill and the rewards of the countless hours of 16          study and preparation are myriad; and

17          WHEREAS, Mr. Santos has earned the respect and admiration of 18          his friends and classmates at Memorial High School, and as he 19          embraces a future bright with promise it is most fitting to pay 20          tribute to him for this outstanding accomplishment; now, therefore,
21          be it

22          RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 78th Texas
23          Legislature hereby congratulate Oscar Servando Santos, Jr., on 24          being named the 2003 salutatorian at Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Memorial

H.R. No. 1635

1 High School and wish him well in all his future endeavors; and, be 2 it further

3           RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be 4 prepared for Mr. Santos as an expression of high regard by the Texas
5 House of Representatives.
