

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 99

WHEREAS, Nancy Muse Taylor has worked diligently in preserving some of our state's most treasured historical landmarks, and her efforts are most deserving of special recognition; and

WHEREAS, A native Texan, Mrs. Taylor was born in Anderson County and educated in the Palestine public school system; she is the wife of the late George F. Taylor and mother of seven living children; and

WHEREAS, This esteemed woman was appointed as one of the first members of the Palestine Historical Preservation Commission by the city's mayor in 1990; she has also been active in the Anderson County Historical Commission for the past two decades; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Taylor is retiring from both organizations this year, and her many significant contributions are being recognized on February 27, 2003, which the city has proclaimed Nancy Taylor Day in Palestine; it is a pleasure to join them in honoring her at this time; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 78th Legislature, hereby commend Nancy Muse Taylor on her service to the Palestine Historical Preservation Commission and the Anderson County Historical Commission and extend to her sincere best wishes for future happiness; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for Mrs. Taylor as an expression of high regard by the Texas Senate.

Staples

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on February 5, 2003.

Secretary of the Senate

Member, Texas Senate