

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 279

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to join interior designers across the state in recognizing March 4, 2003, as Interior Design Day at the State Capitol; and

WHEREAS, Interior designers today meet the changing needs of society; they go beyond aesthetic appeal to create an environment that will accommodate persons of all ages and physical abilities; and

WHEREAS, Interior designers are educated in space, texture, color, and light, as well as public health and safety; they have become experts in flammability, toxicity, ergonomics, and local and state building codes and standards to promote the safety and welfare of their clients; and

WHEREAS, Combining creativity and awareness of safety standards, interior designers make a profound impact on the lives of countless Texas citizens and contribute to the well-being of all people; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 78th Legislature, hereby declare March 4, 2003, Interior Design Day at the State Capitol and extend a heartfelt welcome to all interior designers who have come to the Capitol on this special occasion; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for them as an expression of high regard from the Texas Senate.
