

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 325

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize Paul Ersan on the occasion of his visit to the State Capitol on April 3, 2003, as a participant in the Government in Action program; and

WHEREAS, Government in Action is a component of the Empowering Teen Leaders and Community Teen Leaders programs and a part of the Texas Cooperative Extension of The Texas A&M University System; and

WHEREAS, These programs are designed to develop leadership and citizenship skills in students who are juniors in high schools; while at the State Capitol, Paul will meet legislators and learn more about the processes of government; and

WHEREAS, Paul is expected to provide a minimum of 100 hours of community service and is eligible to receive the Presidential Student Service Award; and

WHEREAS, By developing his leadership and citizenship skills through the teen leadership and Government in Action programs, Paul is well on the way to becoming one of our state's future leaders; and

WHEREAS, Paul is an excellent representative of the many young people who work to make a positive difference in their communities, and he deserves recognition for his dedication and accomplishments; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby commend Paul Ersan for his participation as an Empowering Teen Leader in Government in Action and extend best wishes to him for success in his future endeavors; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for him as an expression of regard from the Texas Senate.

Lindsay

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on March 10, 2003.
