

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 338

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the members of the Community Teen Leaders program at Austin High School in Houston and to welcome them to the State Capitol on April 3, 2003; and

WHEREAS, The Community Teen Leaders program was established under The Leadership Center in cooperation with the Texas Cooperative Extension of The Texas A&M University System; the program provides high school students with education in leadership development, coalition building, and communication; and

WHEREAS, Community Teen Leaders classes have helped many young men and women learn how to serve as leaders in their schools and communities, thus improving the quality of life for young people and their families; and

WHEREAS, Since 1995, over 200 students have completed the program, and they have made a positive difference in the lives of other teenagers and have influenced many to follow in their footsteps; and

WHEREAS, The young people who have participated in the Community Teen Leaders Program have encouraged their peers to become literate, to contribute to their community, and to treat all people with respect; and

WHEREAS, The opportunity to observe the Texas Legislature will permit these fine young leaders to witness their state government in action and encourage them to remain committed to civic participation; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 78th Legislature, hereby salute the participants in the Community Teen Leaders program of Austin High School for the vital leadership roles they have undertaken in their school and city and extend best wishes to them for an enjoyable and memorable visit to the State Capitol; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution be prepared for them as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.

Gallegos

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on April 3, 2003.
