

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 388

WHEREAS, Members of the Texas Pharmacy Association are visiting the Capitol today to celebrate Pharmacy Day at the State Capitol, and this occasion provides an excellent opportunity to recognize this esteemed organization and its members; and

WHEREAS, Established in 1879, this venerable organization has long served as an advocate for pharmacists, pharmacy technicians, pharmacy students, and other pharmaceutical professions by providing a central, public voice in legislative and regulatory matters; and

WHEREAS, In addition, the association provides important information about the pharmaceutical industry to its many members, while also offering innovative continuing education programs and opportunities designed to promote a culture of lifelong learning; and

WHEREAS, Pharmacists play a vital role in the lives of Texans, accurately filling prescriptions and providing information about the safe and effective use of prescription medications, and the Texas Pharmacy Association helps to ensure that our state's pharmacists, pharmacy technicians, and pharmacy students continue to serve the citizens of the Lone Star State to the best of their abilities; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 78th Legislature, hereby recognize March 18, 2003, as Pharmacy Day at the State Capitol and extend a warm welcome to those members of the Texas Pharmacy Association who are in attendance today.

Van de Putte

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on March 17, 2003.
