

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 894

WHEREAS, Casey Hedemann has been named grand prize winner in the Intel Math, Science, Engineering, and Technology (IMSET) category of the comptroller of public accounts' 2003 Texas Tomorrow Fund Poster Contest; and

WHEREAS, Sponsored by Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Belo Corporation, Farmers Insurance Group, Intel Corporation, and Fannie Mae, the competition's guidelines required participants to illustrate the theme "What I Want to Be After College"; the annual contest is composed of three categories: elementary school, middle school, and IMSET, which is open to any contestant whose drawing depicts a career in a technical or scientific field; and

WHEREAS, A fifth grader at Olsen Elementary School in Port Aransas, Miss Hedemann's design was selected from thousands of entries submitted by children across the state, and for her efforts she received a full four-year scholarship to any public university in the Lone Star State; and

WHEREAS, This outstanding young Texan has shown great creativity, initiative, and maturity in creating a poster that so aptly illustrates the contest's worthy goals; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 78th Legislature, hereby congratulate Casey Hedemann on her receipt of the grand prize ranking in the IMSET category of the 2003 Texas Tomorrow Fund Poster Contest and extend to her warmest best wishes for success and happiness in the future; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this resolution be prepared for Miss Hedemann as an expression of high regard by the Texas Senate.
