

SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 938

WHEREAS, Through hard work and determination, Fernando Garza has achieved excellence in his academic work, and his myriad accomplishments are a source of great pride to his close-knit circle of family and friends; and

WHEREAS, After graduating from Clear Creek High School, where he played baseball and also earned the school's "Mr. Hustle" award, Mr. Garza attended Laredo Community College on a baseball scholarship; during his junior college education, he made the Dean's List and received the prestigious President's Award; and

WHEREAS, He continued his successful course of learning at Texas Bible College (TBC) in Columbus; in addition to his place on the Board of Regents List, his honors included the Mr. TBC award, the title of Mr. Agape, and selection as a resident assistant on campus; after his first year, Mr. Garza earned a diploma of Christian Life Studies, and on May 10, 2003, he graduated as salutatorian with a diploma for the Leadership Training Course and a diploma of the School of Ministry for exemplifying the qualities and potential of a godly leader; and

WHEREAS, Accepted to attend Texas A&M University in the fall of 2003, Mr. Garza plans to study economics and political science; demonstrating admirable dedication to his education, Mr. Garza has built a solid foundation for himself and set a notable example that is sure to have a positive influence on all who know him; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of the State of Texas, 78th Legislature, hereby congratulate Fernando Garza on his academic achievements and extend to him best wishes for continued success and happiness; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution be prepared for Mr. Garza as an expression of high regard by the Texas Senate.

Van de Putte

President of the Senate

I hereby certify that the above Resolution was adopted by the Senate on May 23, 2003.

Secretary of the Senate

Member, Texas Senate