

LEGISLATIVE BUDGET BOARD
Austin, Texas

FISCAL NOTE, 78TH LEGISLATIVE REGULAR SESSION

March 27, 2003

TO: Honorable Troy Fraser, Chair, Senate Committee on Business & Commerce

FROM: John Keel, Director, Legislative Budget Board

IN RE: HB44 by Chisum (Relating to the duties of and the renaming of the small business stationary source assistance program as the small business compliance assistance program.), As Engrossed

No fiscal implication to the State is anticipated.

Based on the analysis of the Texas Department of Economic Development and the Commission on Environmental Quality, the provisions of the bill would have no fiscal impact to the state.

Local Government Impact

No fiscal implication to units of local government is anticipated.

Source Agencies: 480 Texas Department of Economic Development, 582 Commission on Environmental Quality

LBB Staff: JK, JRO, CL, RT, DE